Government Without Chance to Win Says Party Leader

Make Prosperity Return Urges Conservative Chief In Final Election Appeal

Government by Bargaining, Log Rolling and Juggling Must End, Declares Mr. Meighen—King Administration Accused of Plunging Country Into Industrial Stagnation—Dominion Hurt by Timid Tariff Policy

Liberals Held as Likely to Be Returned As Sun to Shine by Night, Moon by Day

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—In the final speech of his political campaign, which has carried him from the Atlantic to the Pacific coasts, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, speaking in the Capital tonight, on the eve of the election, appealed for the support of his tariff policy, which "would again bring prosperity to Canada."

Expressing confidence in the result of the battle of ballots, which will be waged tomorrow, Mr. Meighen declared that Canadians should, after four years' experience, put an end to "tariff by bargaining, tariff by log-rolling and by a glance at the division rolls" in the House.

Return of Government Impossible. Canada, he said, should have a tariff policy which "would build up our industries, give employment to our people and keep our workmen and our money in this country."

The consequences of the Government's "policy," stated Mr. Meighen, "had resulted in industrial stagnation and loss of Canada's manhood to the United States through unemployment."

Mr. Meighen declared that the present campaign had been characterized on the part of the Government "by constant desperate and persistent efforts to escape the real issue."

This was their conduct in office and especially the Government conduct in relation to fiscal matters. "There is no more chance of the Government returning with a majority than there is of the moon shining by day and the sun by night," stated Mr. Meighen.

He deplored the consequences of group government as experienced in the last Parliament and the disastrous effects of tariff "whittling."

Country Hurt by Lack of Policy. "No class has profited by what the Government has done in respect to the tariff," said Mr. Meighen. "The Government's conduct on the tariff," (Continued on Page 1)

Attacks Mr. Meighen on British Preference Statement—Thinks It Will Cost Him Thousands of Votes

National Stability Called Real Issue

Appeals for Majority Enough to Allow Government to Carry on Without Fear or Favor

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—Premier King addressed North York tonight, concluding shortly before midnight.

The Premier sharply attacked Mr. Meighen for his statement in Kitchener that "the British preference, wrong in principle."

King added: "I am perfectly assured that Mr. Meighen made a statement of that kind, particularly to the kind of audience he was addressing. I venture to assert that the statement will cost him hundreds of thousands of votes."

I want to tell him that the people of Canada are British first and will not stand for the course outlined by Mr. Meighen. Imagine how Sir John A. Macdonald would have felt if he had heard a statement like that. Even if the preference did cost us something, isn't the Empire worth a few dollars?"

The Prime Minister was hurriedly motored from meeting to meeting up and down Yonge Street, through a blinding snowstorm. At each meeting Mr. King was met by a band and (Continued on Page 2)

Fighting Candidate Silences Hecklers

"Send Your Biggest Man Up Here," Conservative Challenges Noisy Crowd

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—The challenge of Stewart McLaughlin, one of the local Conservative candidates, "to send your biggest or noisiest man" to match his athletic ability with the candidate, had the effect of silencing hecklers at a Conservative meeting here last night. Mr. McLaughlin is an amateur boxer.

"If you want something more exciting than politics, send your biggest or noisiest man up here on this platform and we'll see what he's made of," he said. There was no more heckling.

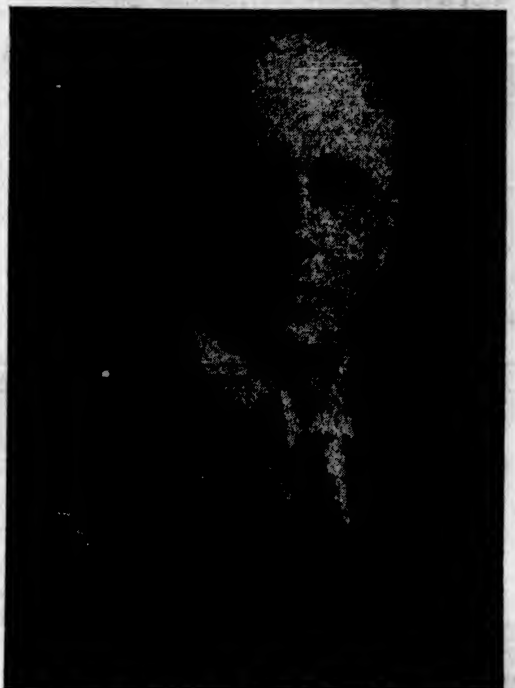

Prairie Weather Promises Big Vote

CALGARY, Oct. 28.—Clear, cold weather is in sight for election day in Southern Alberta, which should result in a heavy poll both in the country and city. Threshing is tied up on account of snow, leaving the farmers free to attend the polls. The roads are in good condition. Advance polls here were heavier in the first two days than in all three days in 1921.

SASKATOON, Oct. 28.—Cold, clear weather experienced here in the last three days is the prospect again for tomorrow. In spite of the low temperature and rough and frozen roads, a heavy vote in the city and the rest of the riding is looked for.

EDMONTON, Oct. 28.—Conditions are favorable for a good turnout of electors tomorrow. Fine and cold weather is predicted, while country roads are frozen hard and in good condition for taking the voters to the polls.

Sure of Success in Battle of Ballots

RT. HON. ARTHUR MEIGHEN

No British Columbia Seat Considered Liberal Gain

Hon. Dr. Tolmie Declares Conservative Broom, Made of Canadian Material by Canadians in Canada, Will Make Clean Sweep Throughout Province

THERE is not a Federal seat in the Province of British Columbia which the Liberals can look upon as safe, according to Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative candidate in Victoria City and Dominion organizer for the Conservative Party, who held his final meeting of the campaign in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce last night, following 17 return from a brief speaking tour on the mainland.

Mr. C. H. Dickie will be returned in the Vancouver Island riding of Nanaimo by a handsome majority, there is no doubt about that," Hon. Dr. Tolmie added. "In the up-Island riding of Comox-Alberni, the Conservative candidate, Mr. Thomas Coldicutt, has been putting up a splendid campaign and his prospects of victory are excellent. The return of Hon. H. H. Stevens, Brig.-Gen. Clark and Mr. Leon Laidner is assured, while the chances of Mr. Morden are excellent."

Mr. McQuarrie, Conservative candidate in New Westminster, appears to be a sure winner, and we expect a substantial majority for Mr. Barber in the Fraser Valley.

"In West Kootenay, the Conservative candidate, Mr. Kaling, has been exceedingly active, and his chances of beating Mr. Humphries, the Independent Progressive Farmer-Labor-Liberal candidate, are good."

"Hon. Dr. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works in the Liberal Government, has been having his hands full in the riding of Esquimalt-Kootenay, and the Conservative candidate, Mr. Rutledge, has a mighty good chance of 'bringing home the bacon,' and Dr. King's scalp, incidentally."

"Skenna riding looks like a Waterloo for Liberal hopes. Mr. Bushby, Conservative, is putting up a great campaign, and my information is that he will win."

Hon. Dr. Tolmie and his campaign manager, Major Gus Lyons, M.P.P., strongly urged all Conservatives to vote. The greater the majority given for Conservative candidates in all parts of Canada the greater would be the recorded condemnation of the Liberal Government and Liberal policies, they declared. "Remember," Dr. Tolmie added, "that you can never tell what horse has won until the numbers go up."

Spiccid Reception. The meeting in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium gave Hon. Dr. Tolmie a most enthusiastic reception, and wound up the campaign with a burst of cheering that left many of its members breathless.

"This election will be one of the most important in the history of Canada," Dr. Tolmie said during the course of his address. "During the regime of the Mackenzie King administration a spirit of unrest has developed in the Dominion, and for the first time in my political life I have (Continued on Page 1)

Girl Misses Vote; Prefers Honeymoon

Returning Officer Refuses to Regard Wedding Journey as Business Trip

QUEBEC, Oct. 28.—A honeymoon is not a business trip, but a pleasure trip, according to a ruling given last night in Quebec East at an advanced polling booth when a pretty young lady asked permission to vote in advance, stating that she would not be here on Thursday to vote.

"Must leave," she said, "and I have a very good reason." The question as to whether she was a railway employee, a traveling woman, or a mail clerk, not bringing affirmative answers, she was told she could not vote in advance.

Finally she confessed blushing that she was getting married and was leaving on her honeymoon.

Colonist Will Post Bulletins on Polls

The Colonist will post bulletins on the results of the Federal polling today. Owing to the difference of time between Atlantic and Pacific standard time, results in the Maritime Provinces will begin to come in during the afternoon, and will be posted at The Colonist Business Office during the late afternoon and evening.

Messrs. E. G. Prior & Co. announce that they will open their premises until midnight to distribute the returns with their eight-tube Super-Heterodyne Radio sets. The news will be received by those attending simultaneously with the broadcasting announcements from Eastern centres.

Fourth Fire Sweeps Town

PETIT CODIAC, N.B., Oct. 28.—Fire, for the fourth time in the last four years, swept through a portion of the business section of this village last night and caused damage estimated at over $10,000.

Record B.C. Vote Predicted Today

VANCOUVER, Oct. 28.—The weather forecast for polling day tomorrow in all sections of British Columbia will not prevent an anticipated record vote being recorded throughout the province. Fair and mild in the coast and interior districts, is what the weather man is offering the electors.

If the interest displayed during the campaign is any indication, tomorrow's vote in all the ridings will be one of the largest, if not the largest, recorded in the history of Federal general elections in British Columbia. Snow which fell last night, followed by a thaw today, may make traveling bad and check somewhat the flow of votes to outlying polls.

League Plans Greco-Bulgar Neutral Zone

Demilitarized Area May Be Established as Result of Intervention in Latest Balkan Quarrel

PARIS, Oct. 28.—A neutral demilitarized zone, between Greece and Bulgaria, with commissions of conciliation for the regulation of all local conflicts in the Balkans may be one of the fruits of the settlement of the Balkan crisis by the Council of the League of Nations.

"Giving a spur to the Balkan States' ambition to elaborate the security pact, the Council probably will undertake to establish principles to guard the Balkan statesmen in handling any future difficulties, and will exert all its influence to have the Locarno security agreement with Germany supplemented not only by a Balkan arrangement, but also by security pacts between other sections of Europe."

Arms Parley Hastened. This will hasten convocation of a disarmament conference which the Locarno protocol hailed as one of the hoped-for results of the achievement of security.

The Balkan crisis, which came at the psychological moment in the new impulse given to European politics, has taken on international significance, which entirely overshadows the conflict between Greece and Bulgaria.

Game Must Be Forgotten. Four great powers, France, Great Britain, Italy and Japan, and six lesser powers, representing both the European and American continents, which together make up the membership of the Council, solemnly registered today their conviction and determination that henceforth (Continued on Page 2)

Greek Plea of Defensive Invasion Given Cold Reception by Council—Athens Rapped by Delegates

PARIS, Oct. 28.—The League of Nations Council today gave a cold reception to the Greek plea of defensive invasion, and rapped Athens by delegates.

Political Observers at Ottawa Sense Turnover—No Doubt Expressed in Federal Capital as to Result—Pronounced Switching of Support to Conservatives Marks Closing Days of Campaign

Three and Half Million Electors Expected to Mark Election Ballots

(Special to The Colonist)

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—The Capital reacts to national political sentiment sooner than any other part of the Dominion, and "as goes Ottawa, so goes Canada," has become a proven proverb. There is no doubt of the result in the Capital. It will be Conservative by thousands.

"It is a landslide," was the customary salutation on the streets of the Capital today, and this indicates the pronounced switching to Conservatives during the past week. Messages from all the provinces justify the opinion prevailing.

From Ontario, Quebec, the Maritimes and the Western provinces, the messages are all optimistic, and none more so than those from Quebec and Saskatchewan, the two strongest Liberal provinces in the Dominion. The Capital believes it is a landslide.

Three and Half Million to Vote. OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—Three and half million electors go to the polls tomorrow to elect Canada's fifteenth Parliament.

Tonight, all leaders had their final word and made their last appeal. All party workers made their concluding effort before ballots are cast. Tomorrow such work as remains will lie in the rounding up of voters.

Exactly how many votes will be cast, or how many voters have their names on the lists, cannot be determined till returning officers make their reports and computations are made.

1921 Figures. But in the elections of 1921, the number of electors on the list was 4,435,310, or more than double the number on the lists in the general elections of 1917. For the increase the granting of votes to women was primarily responsible. Of the 4,435,310, the number of those who actually voted in 1921 was 3,119,304, or rather less than half of the total.

In 1917, thus indicating that women voted extensively, although perhaps not quite so extensively as men. (Continued on Page 2)

Senator Bureau Showered With Eggs in Quebec

Former Minister of Customs Nearly Mobbed at Election Meeting—Police Escort Speaker Away

THREE RIVERS, Que., Oct. 28.—Eggs were thrown and a general tumult featured the meeting here last night when Senator Jacques Bureau, former Minister of Customs, was practically mobbed by about seven thousand people who thronged the assembly. Senator Bureau's words could not be heard above the din, and it was only with difficulty that the reporters could gather the purport of his remarks.

The former minister was attempting to talk in support of Robert Hyatt, Independent candidate in Three Rivers-St. Maurice, who is opposing the official Liberal nominee, Mayor Arthur Bettez.

A continuous uproar prevented the meeting from settling down and at one time a member of the audience threw eggs at Mr. Bureau. Those broke on the walls at the rear of the platform, their contents splashing the Senator's shoulders.

Senator Bureau appeared affected by the hostile demonstration, and left the hall under escort of the police. At the conclusion of the meeting the crowd thronged into the streets and bore Mayor Bettez shoulder high in the procession. The mayor was in the "audience."

British Press Assails French Syria Methods

Papers Aroused by Reported Parade of Bodies of Executed Bandits—General Sarraïl Criticized

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The British press, aroused by comments and accounts of extensive casualties in the suppression of last week's insurrection in Damascus, is strongly critical today of General Sarraïl, the French High Commissioner in Syria. Among other things, his reported attempt to overawe the rebels by parading the corpses of executed brigands on camelback through the streets is sharply condemned. The arrival of consular reports is awaited to clear up the confusion in the number of casualties which range from 1,000 to 25,000. The latter figure came from Arab sources.

None of the news reports indicate that any foreigners were killed. Very little is known as to events since the bombardment beyond the report that there has been a general exodus of the Christian inhabitants. There is no suggestion that further trouble has occurred, but there are hints by persons arriving at Cairo from Damascus that reprisals by the angered natives are possible.

Anteaurians here deplore the reported destruction of many ancient treasures and the damage or ruin of famous buildings which have withstood past invasions.

Greece's plea that she invaded Bulgaria for reasons of defence, clearly gratified on the Council, every member of which backed up M. Nations informed Greece and the entire world today was that defensive warfare in another country's territory is both dangerous and an impossible procedure.

It is apparent that by today's condemnation of the employment of force, the Council wished to lay down a policy which will be applied both to small and big nations, and this remains as the fact of outstanding significance in the developments. The limit of sixty hours fixed by the Council for withdrawal of all troops from the respective frontiers expires at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning (Paris time), and it is then that the Council's military agents must telegraph to Paris whether in fact evacuation has been carried out.

Both Parties Obey League

The Council will meet tomorrow morning, or in the afternoon, in accordance as word is flashed as to whether its edict has been obeyed.

After that comes the designation of the special commission which will proceed to the zone of conflict and later report its findings on the "profound causes of the outbreak."

Both Greece and Bulgaria have accepted this proposed inquiry, which is expected materially to help the League in its furtherance of the creation of a Balkan security pact.

Greece announced at today's meeting of the Council that she had given orders for her troops, in Bulgarian territory to retire behind her own frontier. She assured the Council that complete evacuation of Bulgaria would be carried out within sixty hours, as laid down by the Council.

M. Morlof, the Bulgarian minister, announced that his Government had ordered its troops to take no hostile action, and assured the Council that not a single Bulgarian soldier was now on Greek soil.

He officially informed the Council in writing that Bulgaria accepted all the conditions laid down in the Council's ultimatum.

Greeks Ready to Stop

M. Carapanos, the Greek minister, then read a telegram from the Greek Government, which said that desirous of accelerating peace as far as possible, Greece had already taken measures in conformity with friendly mediation by Roumania with a view to ending all operations and bringing her forces behind the Greek frontier. Later the Greek Government had received a telegram informing it of the Council's demands for evacuation, and it was only necessary to repeat the orders already given the army.

Although no exact figures are available, it is estimated that the number of electors in the present contest will be about eight per cent greater than the number in 1921. Presuming this estimate to be correct, the number of electors on the list will be about 4,790,000. If electors vote in about the same percentage as they voted in 1921, votes cast will total around 3,340,000. Then, sixty-seven per cent of the electors whose names appeared on the list, actually went to the polls. It is quite likely that, given good weather, the percentage tomorrow will be higher and that votes cast will be in the neighborhood of three and a half million. The percentage of the women's vote cast is expected to be greater than it was four years ago.

Leaders' Final Speeches

Alone of the party leaders, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen closed the campaign outside of his own constituency.

Speaking in Ottawa, where he will remain for the voting, Mr. Meighen urged his policy of protection as he has urged it throughout the campaign and charged the Government with "constant, desperate and persistent efforts" to evade the real issues.

In his own constituency of North York, Premier King insisted that Mr. Meighen's policy would divide Canada.

Robert Forke, Progressive leader, in a final manifesto held out for tariff reductions, and urged the sending of a solid Progressive group to Ottawa.

There are 245 representatives to be chosen. Candidates nominated a week ago totalled 592. A few have since dropped out.

crowds of followers who had waited hours. Some slight heckling was silenced by the applause of supporters. At Aurora, the chairman, J. M. Walton, had expressed fears that the Premier might be suffering from fatigue or loss of voice.

Replying, Mr. King said: "I feel about ten years younger than I did when the campaign started. I never felt better in my life."

On every side the evidences of new prosperity were at hand, he said. This evidence would be even brighter had it not been for the campaign of gloom and depression which the leader of the Opposition had carried on.

This campaign had been aimed at the Government, but, though the administration was not suffering, the country as a whole was being misrepresented in the eyes of the world. To offset this campaign against the best interests of Canada the Government had appealed to the country.

Feels Government Secure

Mr. King predicted that in the Maritime Provinces, in Ontario and in Quebec, the Government was as secure as ever before, while in the West the reports were brighter than ever.

Mr. Meighen had changed his ground. High tariff had given way to tariff stability, but the real problem was national stability. The Conservative leader was already admitting defeat and predicting more of what he called "log rolling."

Mr. King appealed for sufficient majority for the Government to carry on without fear or favor in any direction.

The Premier declared that the policy of the Government aimed to unify Canada was bearing fruit in this election. On the other hand Mr. Meighen's appeal would lead towards disunion. He could not speak himself in Quebec, nor could he bring a lieutenant with him in Ontario, either from Quebec or the West.

Taunts Mr. Meighen

"Why didn't he bring Mr. Patenaude or Bob Rogers to stand beside him on the platform of Massey Hall the other night?" asked the Premier.

"In my meeting there I had Mr. Lapointe, representing the French race, standing beside Mr. Dunning from the West and Mr. Massey, the manufacturer."

These men, said Mr. King, were united within the Liberal party for the harmony and prosperity of Canada. Mr. King paid special tribute to the workers of the Liberal party who had carried on the campaign in North York during his absence.

At Newmarket the Prime Minister addressed over 4,000 persons, said to be the largest political meeting ever held in the town.

The Premier's party left tonight by special train for the capital, where Mr. King will cast his vote and receive the election returns.

Russian Knifed and Killed on Ship in Vancouver Harbor—Held by Police appeared in police court charged with murder this afternoon and was remanded until Friday for preliminary trial.

 It is learned that the two men had quarreled yesterday while working together on the Crofton Hall which is loading a cargo for New York. According to other members of the crew, there was a fight of which Evidovskoff got the better, and after which Berentsen threatened him with violence.
 Capt. Lang, of the Crofton Hall, found the Russian, who had only been on the ship for two weeks, having been signed on at San Francisco, lying on the floor of the fore-cabin, where he had been dragged from his blood-soaked bunk, with four knife wounds in his chest. He was unconscious and died before medical aid arrived. Berentsen, who was lurking nearby, was handed over to the authorities.

New Cabinet Backs French Capital Levy

M. Painleve Again to Head Paris Ministry—Concessions Made to Groups of Left

Radical Measure Stirs Opposition

Senate Majority and Many of Radicals to Take Stand Against Interference With Capital

PARIS, Oct. 28.—M. Painleve, after conferring with M. Herriot and M. Briand, accepted the mission to form a new government tendered him by President Doumergue this afternoon. The new cabinet, according to present indications, will have M. Briand as Minister of Foreign Affairs, and M. Loucheur as Minister of Finance, with the Premier remaining at the War Office.

The new ministry will be composed to conform to the resolution adopted by the Radical convention at Nice in favor of a capital levy and to a resolution adopted by the groups of the Left today, demanding the return of power of several members of former Premier Herriot's cabinet.

Probable Ministers
 Camille Chautemps, former Minister of the Interior, and Edouard Dadiet, former Minister of Colonies, are regarded as certain to come back.

In view of M. Painleve's concessions to the groups on the Left, his success in forming a new combination is regarded as assured, although the life of such a cabinet, formed to put through a capital levy, is considered precarious. Socialist support of the new government depends upon the early introduction of such a measure.

The Radical party, however, is split on the question. A canvass of the group by parliamentary specialists indicated that at least thirty members are opposed absolutely to a levy on capital. Such a defection from a coalition of the Left in the chamber would make the government majority too scanty for certain success.

Senate Disapproval
 A similar canvass of the Senate showed a majority against the measure, which the Socialists and extreme Radicals insist on, and which is the price of their support of M. Painleve's second government.

President Doumergue was warned today by at least three of the men he consulted that the necessary measures to lift France out of its present sorry position can be put through only by national concord and a truce between the parties. The Radical group, however, the tendency of the majority in the chamber must first be consulted, and he asked M. Painleve to constitute a cabinet on the terms imposed by the groups on which he will rely for a majority.

Solicitor and Client Come to Blows

Irate Litigant Jailed for Month for Landing on Lawyer's Right Eye

VANCOUVER, Oct. 28.—A battle and chase through the corridors of a downtown office building Monday evening with a lawyer and a litigant, principals had his sequel in police court today, when Jack Metcalfe, charged by Eric Thompson, with assault, was sentenced by Magistrate J. A. Findlay to one month in Oakalla.

The assault was the outcome of months of litigation in a civil case. Metcalfe visited his solicitor and demanded $5 which he claimed was due him. That the funds were tied up by law and could not be paid over except on a court order, he replied by striking Thompson in the right eye. The litigant then grappled Thompson, but the latter managed to escape and ran outside for the purpose of calling the police.

Thompson could not find the stairs, he averted, and with Metcalfe at his heels ran the length of the corridor, and doubled back to the office of his partner who had summoned the police.

Three Officials Will Come Here

November 18 Is Date Set for Typographical Union Delegation in Victoria

At the monthly meeting of the Victoria Typographical Union, President F. G. Wyatt announced that he had received information that President James M. Lynch, First Vice-President R. R. Brown, and Secretary-Treasurer J. W. Hays, members of the Executive Council of the International Typographical Union, had in contemplation a western itinerary which would include Victoria. The party will arrive here on the Seattle boat at 11:15 on Wednesday, November 18, and leave the following day for Vancouver. A reception committee was appointed by the local union to make arrangements for the entertainment of the well-known labor leaders of an organization that has always been in the forefront by its educational methods in the cause of trade unionism on this continent.

The I.T.U. protective and beneficial institutions, such as the $2,500,000 Union Printers' Home at Colorado Springs, Colo.; its mortuary benefits, and its old age pensions, have accomplished much in popularizing the trade union movement, and probably accounts for the amiable relations that exist between the employers and their employees.

A donation of $50 was voted in favor of the Mayor's Bentinck Relief Fund, for the benefit of the families of the longshoremen whose lives were so tragically terminated when the tug Hope turned turtle. A resolution of appreciation was passed to the T.R. Association at the favorable termination of their efforts to secure recognition of the claims of the late J. J. Belfort by the B. C. R. Board.

Chinese Take Caustic View Of New Parley

Press Unfriendly and Skeptic of Powers' Intentions Toward Peking Request for Tariff Autonomy

PEKING, Oct. 28.—While Chinese opinion, as expressed through the press, showed an unfriendly reaction to the opening speeches at the Chinese Customs Conference and skepticism toward the powers' intention towards China's request for tariff autonomy, the conference committee today settled to work on the various problems assigned to them.

No date has been set for the next general meeting of the delegates and it was assumed that the gathering will adopt the methods of the Washington conference, with the committee reporting to plenary sessions only when their work is virtually completed.

The Chinese press today generally stressed the demand for the restoration of unrestricted tariff autonomy and comment which bears directly on the conference ranges between hostile and deprecatory.

Chinese Press Critical

To reach Victoria by ferry the cost would not exceed $7 to $10 a car.

Rev. Canon Skeay Declares Case of Workers Desperate Under King Regime

Experience gained in his work in a downtown parish of 6,200 families impressed upon Rev. Canon Skeay the need in Canada for the policy of the Conservative party and induced him to mount the political platform, says The Toronto Mail and Empire in a report of an address by Canon Skeay in favor of David Spence the Conservative candidate in Parkdale. The only previous political activity of Canon Skeay was during the Union Government election, when he assisted in returning a Liberal-Union member. In the hope, however, of securing improvement of conditions in his parish which, because of unemployment, were more harrowing than he had ever before known them to be, Rev. Mr. Skeay lent his support to Mr. Spence's cause.

Declaring that he spoke only as a citizen and not as a clergyman, Canon Skeay said that the thing which concerned him in the present campaign was not party supremacy but the industrial depression and consequent hardship among the people which existed. Liberal party propaganda to the effect that times were good reminded him of the query, "Are we downhearted?" and the determined "No" of war time. ## Elevator Site Was Result of Group's Effort

Ald. Blair Explains How Panama-Pacific Grain Building, Planned for Victoria, Was Secured

Outside Money Rejected

That the Industrial Group of the Chamber of Commerce was responsible for the decision to locate the Panama-Pacific grain elevator in this port was the statement made by Ald. M. P. Blair, retiring chairman of that organization, at a meeting held yesterday. "That elevator would not have located here had it not been for the interest of the group," he said.

Alderman Blair traced the history of the proposition up to the present time, explaining that while there had been some delay in getting the funds expected from the actual grain producers on the Prairies, owing to the peculiar conditions connected with the harvest there this Fall, the financial situation was such that "none behind it had no doubt that the money would be available shortly and that a start upon construction would be made early in the Spring."

The company had had assurances of money from Amsterdam, New York and other centres, but the decision had been arrived at that the producers of grain would be looked to for the money to supply the funds, and this policy was being pursued.

Plans First Class
 The building plans had been approved by the very highest authorities. They had been prepared by Mr. Howe, of Port Arthur, recognized as one of the best men in this line. The structure would be of concrete and would be capable of taking care of 2,000,000 bushels. It would be constructed in units, with an actual capacity, when completed, of 1,600,000 bushels.

In reference to the selection of the location for the elevator, Alderman Blair said that Mr. A. J. Gibson, with whom the proposition originated, had come to the city of Vancouver and spent a year there investigating the matter of locating works, and finally it had been decided that Vancouver should not be selected. New Westminster was investigated and it was practically decided to go there, when Mr. J. A. Mooney came to Victoria with the idea of seeing just what there was here, but with little or no idea of locating in Victoria.

Group Secured Elevator

Then he came here. Members of the Industrial Group got in touch with him and took him about the city, showing all there was to offer in Victoria. As a result, Mr. Mooney, convinced that Victoria was the place to which the elevator should come, telephoned Mr. Gibson to come to this city and see for himself. The latter decided, with Mr. Mooney, that this was the place for it.

Following a series of questions asked Mr. Blair said he was assured by those interested that the question of getting a supply of wheat was solved. What was known as the Wheat Pool had agreed to supply wheat to the elevator here.

On the point of the Government elevator, Mr. Blair said there had been an effort made in that direction, but that the proposition of the Panama-Pacific had taken its place. Mr. Blair said he had been informed that investigation into the cost of delivering grain in Victoria by ferry showed it would mean a saving to the C.N. Company in comparison with the handling of it in Vancouver. To reach the water in the latter port the charges, it was estimated, would reach from $14 to $17 a car from Port Mann. To reach Victoria by ferry the cost would not exceed $7 to $10 a car.

 discouragement, and similarly the Liberal party was harping on the prosperity of the present time simply because they realized themselves that times were not good and that the matter must be labored by argument if the atmosphere of prosperity were to be created.
 In all his years of work Canon Skeay could not remember distress in his parish such as existed now through unemployment. Factories were closed or running only on part time. The condition of many families was harrowing beyond any of his previous experience, and when he was successful in securing three days' work a week for a man that person considered himself fortunate. #### PROTECTION

The issue of the election campaign, now concluded, is the tariff, whether the people of Canada want to support a Government which is carrying on a policy of effecting tariff reductions or will support a party and put a Government in power that will protect Canadian industries and resources for the benefit of Canadians themselves. It is largely a question of what trade policies are most suitable for this Dominion. Experience is our best guide in this particular. Under the policies of tariff tinkering being indulged in by the present Government we have seen 1,400 factories forced to close their doors, we have seen upwards of 500,000 Canadians forced to emigrate from the country, we have seen prosperity lacking, and unrest in the public mind because of uncertainty about the future. Under Protection as it was practised in the past we had prosperity, our factories multiplied instead of decreasing and our sons and daughters did not have to leave the country in order to earn a livelihood.

Canada has abundant resources. Her need is capital and population. This Dominion is now the second largest customer of the United States. We are sending to that country to purchase goods which can be made just as well in Canada. Every dollar we send away for this reason deprives our people of work, and reduces the circulation of our own money in our own country. Under policies of the last four years we are, one and all, participants in an economic blunder and in a commercial crime against ourselves. We send our pulp to the United States to be made up into paper. We send our logs there to be manufactured. We permit our water powers to be utilized for the development of American industry. We do these and many other things which in the aggregate mean that we are playing into the hands of American industrialism, that we are giving Americans, for a mere song, our great natural resources and giving them, as well, our man-power to help in manufacturing those resources. What are we getting in exchange? We are simply building up for ourselves a reputation of being easy prey for the industrial and commercial interests of the United States.

The obvious economic duty of Canada is to profit both by the lessons of her industrial past and by the fiscal mistakes of the last four years of blundering legislation at Ottawa. It is simply a question of whether or not we want Canada developed for the people of Canada themselves and developed as an integral part of the British Empire, or do we want the present process to be continued of making this great country an industrial annex of the United States? By the latter course, and it is the course being pursued wittingly or unwittingly by the Mackenzie King Government, we cannot have a happy, prosperous and contented Canada. We cannot have our birthright and keep on giving it away. We cannot maintain our prestige and self respect if we are not the architects of our own fortunes. Protection is the key-note of Canadian prosperity. That is the indubitable lesson of experience. If the logic of events has any bearing on the present mental attitude of the people of Canada there can be no question of what will be the result of today's election.

FREIGHT RATE FRIENDSHIP

Since we are assured now by Mr. G. G. McGeer, Premier Oliver and other Liberal speakers in the present campaign that Mr. Mackenzie King and his Government have always been friendly to British Columbia's fight for reduced freight rates, what a pity it is that the Province should have thought it necessary to spend a sum, variously estimated at between $150,000 and $200,000, to carry on its freight rate propaganda. Premier Oliver, for one, claims that Parliament has authority in the freight rate issue. Well, the last Parliament was controlled by a Liberal Government and the freight rate fight conducted by Premier Oliver took place altogether while that Government was in power. Does it need such a heavy expenditure for a Provincial Government to persuade a Federal Government, when both are of the same political complexion, that the former has a just cause?

It would be easier to persuade the electors now that Mr. Mackenzie King is their freight rate friend if it had not cost the Province from $150,000 to $200,000 to find out where it stood in the premises. If Premier Oliver and Mr. McGeer are to be believed now it appears that the Province has indulged in a heavy expenditure which might have been avoided if, in the first instance, the Liberals here had discovered that Mr. King was such a close political freight rate friend of the people of British Columbia.

What a pity, we reiterate, that just the lack of the exercise of a little political perspicacity cost the taxpayers of British Columbia anywhere from $150,000 to $200,000. It may be remarked incidentally, too, that the bill is still running and that those taxpayers may have to meet many thousands more dollars than the present estimate of what they are out of pocket.

INDUSTRIAL DEPRESSION

According to Government statistics, under the heading of "Iron and Steel and Their Products in Canada," the Dominion in 1920 possessed 1,475 plants. The capital employed was $642,904,322 and the average number of employees was 102,661 and their salaries and wages amounted to $132,885,132. The cost of the materials used was $321,298,396; the value of the products was $640,233,785, and the value added by manufacturing was $318,935,589.

Owing to the policies of the Mackenzie King Government there was a different tale to tell of the iron and steel industry in 1924. By that year the number of plants had decreased to 1,004. The capital employed had shrunk to $535,539,833, and the number of employees to 78,240. The cost of materials used was only $195,129,703, and the value of the products was reduced to $368,476,650. The value added by manufacturing was down to $173,346,947 as compared with $318,935,589 in 1920. The wages and salaries paid to employees in 1924 was $99,613,638, as compared with $132,885,132 in 1920.

The foregoing are Government figures and show that the tariff reductions in branches of the iron and steel industry have had their inevitable effect. Those reductions illustrate why iron and steel workers have had to leave Canada for the United States in search of work. The reductions were effected through the persistence of the Progressive members and their bargaining with the Liberals, the bargain being that only through tariff reductions could their continued political support be secured. The era of tariff instability, decreasing employment and the exodus of our citizens will be continued if the Mackenzie King Government is sustained.

The Canadian Labor Press of Ottawa says: "A vote for a candidate pledged to retain the present Liberal Government in power means the country will drift along in its present wholly unsatisfactory condition with accompanying increase in unemployment, unhappiness and misery for you and your family. It means in all probability you will be eventually compelled to part from your family in order to earn a living. It means that you may be compelled to break up your home and migrate to a foreign country in order to obtain for your family the necessities of life. It means that you may be forced to contribute by your toil to the prosperity of a foreign country. It means that with certainty part of your earnings, even if you are lucky enough to be employed in Canada, will be diverted to the welfare of the Republic to the South."

Premier Mackenzie King keeps on reiterating that the tariff issue should have been left out of the present campaign. As the contest at the polls approached he realized more and more that this issue is having such an adverse effect on his political fortunes that his chances of re-election have gone a-glimmering. In an election, however, it is for the people to decide what they regard as the main issue and the tariff has overshadowed all others. The issue is really one of industrial protection versus industrial decadence.

The main issue of the election being held today is put succinctly by The Toronto Telegram. It says that every vote against Mr. King is a vote for a Canada First Tariff, and is a vote to serve the need of Canada; whereas, every vote for Mr. King is a vote for a United States Tariff and a vote to feed the greed of American interests with employment that belongs to Canada.

The Life of a Rose

A fairy sped from flower-land,
One dark and dreamy night,
She stopped, and weary, folded
Her wings of rosy light.
A dewdrop came down from the sky
To quench the fairy's thirst.
Unheeded the tiny, scented wings,
Man said—"The bud has burst."
The fairy awakened with the dawn,
And drew away from her room,
She opened out her silken dress,
Man said—"A rose in bloom."
The fairy rose and opened her wings,
And from the garden fled,
The winds bore on the perfume
Sweet, sweet, sweet,
Man said—"The rose is dead."
—Will-o'-the-Wisp.

Betrayed Woman's Crime

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 28.—Helen Schultz, seventeen, last night shot and killed Edward Lister, thirty-three, after she returned from a motor car ride. The girl, who said her action was prompted by Lister's refusal to marry her, then drove to the police station and gave herself up. She told the authorities that Lister was the father of her infant son.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

"The Ladies—God bless them!" That is what the orator says when he proposes the toast of the evening to a company of mere men which has dined generously and has dined judiciously, and therefore is in a mood to respond with enthusiasm to the said toast of the evening.

The ladies, God bless them! hold the political destiny of Canada in the hollow of their hands today. That is a somewhat momentous matter that the candidates of the various political parties seeking the suffrages of the free and the enlightened electorate of Canada seem to have overlooked. At least we have not noticed that any special appeals have been made for the votes and the influence of the women by the numerous candidates of the various political parties. The women have entered into their political inheritance, and the men, swayed in the ceremonies of their own selfish affairs, either have forgotten all about it or do not consider the fact worthy of their lordly consideration.

Well, the Ladies, God bless them! we have not forgotten. We predict that before the dawn of another day numerous candidates of various political parties will have reason to lament the fact that they overlooked them in drawing up their plans of the political campaign. For the ladies, if they do their duty and exercise the franchise with that intelligence and foresight and long-sighted and patriotic zeal for which they are noted will determine whether Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen or Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King shall be Premier of Canada for the next four or five years.

We are not going to tell the ladies to vote for the candidates of either Mr. Meighen or Mr. King. We have lived too long in this world and have been too long associated in various capacities with women to attempt anything so indiscreet or so futile. We know that the minds of the ladies are fully made up on that point. But we may surely be permitted to point out that Mr. King is a bachelor of many years' standing, and appears to be beyond hope of matrimonial redemption. He has absolutely failed in one of the most important duties of citizenship. He has not entered into the fullness of life as a citizen of a country that has ample space for a population of hundreds of millions. Mr. King is a failure as a patriotic citizen. How can he be expected to be a success as Premier of Canada?

Having stated the facts, surely it would be supererogatory to say more. But there is more to be said—the most important thing is yet to be said. While it may be a grand and glorious thing for the ladies to feel that they hold the political destiny of the finest country in the world in the hollow of their hands, the power they wield is of no value if it be not exercised.

Consequently we warn the ladies that the eyes of the foes of woman suffrage are upon them. If they permit any of their manifold duties to deter them from going to the polls and casting their ballots (we already have said it is none of our business how they mark their ballots) mere men will laugh and say "We told you so." The women are not interested in politics. The women know nothing about the political issues of the day. The women are not worthy of the franchise. That is what must be said with any degree of justification. Therefore we trust the lady voters of Victoria will enter the polls with enthusiasm and perform the part assigned to them in the determination of the political destinies of Canada.

Of the formation of leagues there is no end, and apparently there is going to be no immediate end. If we began with the League of Nations and counted downwards the names of the legions of leagues now "functioning" throughout the world would fill all the columns of a large edition of The Colonist.

Another league has been organized in the United States. It is called the "Thank You" League. Its object is refinement of the manners of the people of the United States.

We have not paid many visits to the United States within recent years. Our American friends have become very selective in their attitude towards strangers. We are so unfortunate as to be numbered among the classes ineligible for admittance to the United States without undergoing a rigorous examination and payment of a substantial entrance fee. We have a national repugnance to being cross-examined, and we like to keep a tight grip on the trifling amount of money we have got. But we have conversed with many people who have mingled with Americans, and the consensus of that opinion as we have consulted is that the American people are courteous to a degree, and very kind-hearted; that the American people will put themselves to a considerable amount of inconvenience and almost any amount of expense to accommodate strangers in their midst.

Consequently we do not understand why it should be considered necessary to organize a "Thank You" League in the United States. If there are a few people on the other side who would be improved by being brought in contact with persons of gentle manners and refinement of speech, we doubt whether the new league ever will reach such persons or whether it would have any effect upon their ways and their manners, even if it did reach them. Instead of organizing new leagues, our neighbors perhaps would be better employed in disorganizing a multitude of the leagues already organized.

When the Planting of Trees Becomes a National Festival
The natural resources of the United States have been so overwhelmingly abundant that for several centuries they were used continuously and recklessly without being impaired. The vast forest regions without the strain of the building of a nation for many years before they began to show signs of deterioration.
But, no matter how tremendous that source of natural resources, a policy of reckless extravagance in using them could not go on forever. There was bound to be an end to that sooner or later.
When the forests showed their first signs of thinning out, the matter gained the attention of prominent men who were interested in the ultimate welfare of the century as well as its immediate success. They determined to preserve what Nature had kindly bestowed upon them. The policy of national preservation came to the fore.
It was in following out this policy that Arbor Day came to be a holiday. It is a day set apart for the planting of trees. If we plant trees continually to take the place of those that are being cut down, we will have no fear of any permanent loss in our forest resources.
Practically every State in the Union and portions of Canada celebrate this custom. The ceremony usually takes place in late April or early May. On the day set apart by those States you can find everybody, from the school children to their grandparents, busily engaged in planting the seed of a tree that will come to its full growth long after they have lost the faculty of seeing or appreciating their handiwork.
It makes a pretty picture to see the little children, in their fresh spring dresses and bows and ashes, digging at the soil to start something that will be a lasting monument to the day.

enact the law providing for Arbor Day, in 1872. Since then there have been many laws regulating the planting of trees in that State. The Government makes it compulsory upon cities and towns to plant shade trees along the streets.
Most of the other States have followed suit and celebrate the day with proper appreciation of its meaning and its value. It is one of the proudest national celebrations we have.

Dr. MacLean Says Issue Is Freight Rates

Provincial Minister of Finance and Education Is Roundly Heckled at Final Liberal Rally

Mr. Ivel on Prosperity

That the equalization of freight rates was the big issue in today's election was the contention of Hon. Dr. J. D. MacLean, Provincial Minister of Finance and Education at last night's Liberal rally at the Royal Victoria Theatre.

Dr. MacLean addressed a house, the lower portion of which was filled and the upper portion empty. His co-speakers were Mr. William Ivel, Liberal candidate, and Mr. J. W. deB. Farris, formerly Provincial Attorney-General.

There was much heckling during the evening. At times the uproar drowned out the words of Dr. MacLean completely. Mr. Ivel was a man of good judgment, Dr. MacLean declared. He had known Mr. Ivel for many years and knew him to be a man of excellent character, of high ideals, of broad vision, and of tolerance.

He noticed that Mr. Ivel had improved as a public speaker. It was necessary to be a good speaker at Ottawa. But he knew from experience that the men who served their country best were not necessarily the men who took up most of the time of the House of Commons.

His ideals as a Canadian led him to believe that one of the important questions confronting the country today was the problem of maintaining a national unity.

The Tariff
Regarding the tariff policy, Dr. MacLean asked his audience which they preferred—one that conducted to the peace and harmony of one section of the country or one that conducted to the peace and harmony of the whole of the country.

Mr. W. J. Bowser had said recently that the Progressives were dissatisfied fellows who had come over to Canada from Minnesota, Michigan and Kansas. But he had ascertained that of the membership of the House of Commons only three had come from the United States.

What is the question of most importance to the country?

When the liver becomes sluggish or torpid in action, the kidneys have to help out with the work of filtration. When the liver fails the kidneys have all the work to do.

Since trouble in the liver is usually biliousness, indigestion and constipation and after a time the kidneys begin to be affected and there comes backache, urinary derangements and kidney disease.

The remarkable success of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills is due to their unique combined action on the liver, kidneys and bowels. They get at the cause of trouble and remove it no matter how complicated it may be. Promptly and thoroughly they cleanse the bowels or intestines, arouse the liver action and thereby relieve the overworked kidneys.

CFCT to Broadcast Dominion Election Returns Tonight

RADIO STATION CFCT, through the courtesy of Manager G. W. Beaville, will broadcast the returns of the Federal election tonight. The station will be on the air commencing at 8 o'clock, and will give out all returns available.

portance to the people of British Columbia today

"Well—I will agree with you on that," said Dr. MacLean and promptly undertook to explain the freight rates issue in all of its manifold implications.

"What is the reason today that B.C. cannot make more progress in manufacturing?" he asked a little later. "Chiniks!" came the thunderous response again, and for an appreciable space the theatre was almost in turmoil.

Dr. MacLean then indulged in a prophetic vision in various parts of the country for the Liberal Party.

The Dollar
The fact that the dollar was above par in the United States was an indication of the prosperity in this country, Mr. Ivel told the audience. The chief difference in the policies of the two parties was that the Liberals believed in developing basic industries. They based their measures for prosperity on that line of endeavor.

The benefits of the treaty with Australia would be minimized unless the West was given equalization of freight rates.

The Conservatives were good starters but poor finishers. They had been taking credit for the building of the Ogden Point pier. But up until four years ago there had not been even electric light on these piers. They had lain idle for nearly ten years. Now Victoria had ships coming here and using those same docks.

The question at stake tomorrow was not one of personalities declared Mr. Farris. It was: "Which side is likely to win and is it to our interests to send down to Ottawa a member of the winning side as representative of our riding?"

Mr. Farris was quite sure that Mr. MacKenzie King would win the election.

Mr. B. C. Nicholas was chairman of the meeting.

Hundreds Attend Fireman's Funeral

Impressive Rites Mark Services for Late Mr. Frank Medley, Buried Yesterday

A flower-laden, crepe-draped truck from the fire department, preceded by a long cortege of uniformed firemen and police and officials from the various departments of the City Hall, was the hearse on which the remains of the late Mr. Frank Medley, the fireman killed last Saturday, were borne to their last resting place at Ross Bay cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The funeral was impressive in every way. Leaving the B. C. Funeral Chapel at two o'clock, the procession made its way slowly along Douglas Street to the fire department headquarters on Cormorant Street. Hundreds of people, unable to gain admittance to the chapel, stood in the line outside the funeral parlors in Broughton Street until the service behind the coffin falling into line behind the firemen's band, playing "The Dead March in Saul." There followed a long rank of firemen, headed by Chief Stewart and deputy chief, in double file, and after them the police department, city officials, including Mayor Pennington, Aldermen E. S. Wood, P. E. Brown and R. L. Warr, the fire wardens and Reeve Macleod of Saanich.

At the fire department headquarters further impressive ceremonies took place. "Taps" and "Last Post" being sounded.

The cortege was directed to Ross Bay. Two additional hearse were required to carry the flowers, one of the most beautiful tributes among which was from the dead fireman's comrades, in the form of a helmet, fashioned from scarlet flowers, placed on a blue floral background.

The pallbearers were Messrs. G. (Laird) F. Stuart, Andy Kender and Alex. McKinnon, of the fire department, and S. Wallis and A. Kidd, friends of the late Mr. Medley.

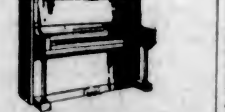

Among the mourners were three brothers and a sister: Mr. Herbert Medley, a member of the fire department here; Messrs. Charles and Frank Medley, of Vancouver, and Mrs. Lucy Ward, of Victoria. The parents and two brothers and two sisters are still living in Kingston.

Hymns sung at the funeral were "Forever With the Lord" and "Rock of Ages."

Sir F. Dutton Resumes Tour

Recent Visitor Here for Colonial Institute Speaks in Montreal

The Royal Colonial Institute as a link of Empire was stressed by Sir Frederick Dutton, of London, England, vice-president of the Royal Colonial Institute, in an address given to members of the Montreal branch of the Institute at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel. Sir Frederick, with Lady Dutton, has made a tour of the Empire and the South American Republics, and everywhere, he said, he met members of the Royal Colonial Institute. He was recently a visitor here on his lengthy tour.

"There are 15,000 members of the Institute in every part of the Empire. It is a very inspiring thing and only shows what a tremendous link of Empire the Institute has been," Sir Frederick told the members. "By having 15,000 members all over the world, by having them kept constantly in touch with one another, and with members who constantly travel, there is kept alive that spirit of loyalty and patriotism to the Empire which is the life and soul of the Royal Colonial Institute."

Sir Frederick paid a tribute to Canada's fight for the Empire, first in 1867, when Canada decided to remain a part of the Empire, and secondly in the Great War, in which she played a great and wonderful part.

Unity of Empire
It was the unity of the Empire that was the impressive factor in its status. If the Empire were broken tomorrow he did not think that anyone would care or attach any importance to Britain alone. It was the unity, the strength testified during the war which was the impressive factor. The speaker proceeded to deal with the work of the Institute in general and of projected developments. The accommodation at the headquarters in London was much too small for the great work which was being done and efforts were being made to get additional buildings. The Empire Library needed more accommodation, and also the department where the newspapers of the Empire were filed. Sir Frederick attached much importance to member membership in the Institute, since women played a great part in influencing the children in the love of the British Empire and its traditions. Unless the children were influenced there was danger that the next generation might lack the loyalty and the which it was the aim of the Royal Colonial Institute to engender.

Letters to Editor
No letter to the editor will be inserted except over the proper signature and address of the writer. This rule admits of no exception.

Saanich and Water
Sir,—Excess water in Esquimalt costs thirty cents per 1,000 gallons, in Victoria nineteen and one-fifth cents, and in Saanich fifteen cents. Apparently Saanich is getting the cheapest water in the province for various industrial purposes. Much of it is re-tailed at about twenty cents per pint. The water is used for a very great deal more. At twenty cents per pint an Esquimalt and Victoria dealer gets $1.48 for their investments of thirty and ninety-cent one-fifth cents respectively. The irrigation in Saanich producing an acre of potatoes and using but one acre foot of water will consume 272,500 gallons, at fifteen cents per 1,000 gallons this amounts to $40.84. A good average crop of potatoes in our district is 400 bushels to the acre. This means ten cents for the water to produce a bushel. A good price to the farmer for the potatoes will be $1 per bushel. Hence for an acre of ten cents he makes a dollar sale. Summarizing the results, Victoria's return is about $500 times the cost, Esquimalt's is $500, while the irrigationist gets about ten times his outlay.

In this connection the following questions from folders on the irrigated lands of British Columbia may be of interest. They say: "The main system will provide water sufficient to cover each acre under it to a depth of two inches during any month." The water rate for the present will be six dollars per irrigator.

sible acre per annum." For the crop of potatoes this would allow thirty inches of water during the three most important months in the summer at a cost of six dollars, which in Saanich would amount to slightly over $100.

The Victoria Water system has been installed for a domestic and industrial supply which both demand service for twelve months in the year. This requires expensive frost proof construction for our two or three feet of extreme weather "the winter." Our homes and industries can stand the cost of this protection. It is unnecessary and financially prohibitive to the irrigationist. Even in summer, irrigation water would be better if delivered in open flumes, rather than through a system with expensive protection against pollution.

The Victoria system is not installed for irrigation. With the above conditions to guide us our farmers cannot expect profit from it as they do other industries. It has not been constructed for farming purposes. If the farmers have to pay for it in proportion to other industries he will be better off without it. If Alderman Todd and R.B.D. can prove otherwise they will be giving a most valuable contribution to the whole water controversy.

Victoria is not an agricultural city. It is trying to lay the foundation for homes and industries. The water system is adapted for these purposes. In constructing today for future use, Victoria may often have had surplus water to sell. Victoria is in a position to offer permanent prices for irrigation. It would only add to our present financial difficulties to attempt the expansion of our present system for this purpose. But if the city can sell a surplus at any price, this or any other purpose for which it is so much ahead until industrial development catches up with construction. On this basis the Saanich irrigationist will pay the city more than a comparative irrigation rate would allow until such time as a real irrigation system is established on the Saanich peninsula.

Having established industrial reasons why Victoria cannot expect irrigation to pay in proportion to other industries, the way may be opened for arriving at a reasonable price for irrigation water, both within and without the city, until such time as the firm of the Commercial Press, and also for opening up exploration work for the basis of a reasonable irrigation system for the Saanich Peninsula.

Captain Brace's Statements
Sir,—In The Colonist of Tuesday there appears a report of a Captain Brace's speech to the Gyron regarding things Chinese. He made mention of a "white" cotton concern (place and name omitted), that by "sweating" piles up $1,000,000 a year profit, and to draw special attention to this and the real loving care bestowed upon employees by Chinese concerns. Instances the "Chinese" firm of the Commercial Press, the "white" cotton concern (mill) is evidently meant to be British, for, as I remember, there are only Chinese, Japanese and British cotton mills, at any rate capable of even thinking $1,000,000 a year profit. For 1924 the big British Jow mill, capital, Shanghai, total, 1,000,000 (say gold dollars 70,000), paid five per cent and nothing over on to reserves (vide North China Weekly Herald's share list). Regarding the Commercial Press, which Captain Brace speaks of in such glowing terms, "high salaries," "time for recreation," and so on, perhaps the fact that their lovingly-cared-for employees went on strike on or about August 23 of this year, brushes a considerable amount of the gift from the gingerbread. The workers' manifesto states "extracts herewith" from the Shanghai paper, August 29: "Words can hardly describe the hardships of our toil." "Work from 5 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.—over seventy-five per cent of our workers receive about $10 (gold dollars 4.80) per month." "Some of the managers get $20 per month (Mexican dollars) and an annual bonus of about $10,000 each." "Oppression is practiced by all capitalists, but the brand peculiar to the Commercial Press could not, we solemnly declare, be found anywhere else." "Our work and our working hours have been long and filled with toil." "Our superiors have actually treated us as beasts of burden," and so on. The strike was settled by the company granting numerous concessions.

At another meeting, held at the Metropolitan Church, Captain Brace again spoke of the "white" (name again omitted) mill and placed the time in 1904, twenty-one years ago, and gave alleged details of the wages paid. It is easy to make statements, easy to run, but a Shanghai Briton of twenty-one years in China. I protest most strongly against the imputation that "white" firms are sweating the Chinese in contrast to the Chinese firms.

As British firms are very largely interested in all industrial matters in China, I challenge Captain Brace to prove his statements, and am willing to wager real, good money (to go to the hospitals) that he cannot produce audited statements of all Chinese cotton mills whose employees get better wages or better treatment than six white cotton mills. The impression would be upon a Victoria audience that if Captain Brace's statements are true, a most disgraceful condition prevails in "white" mills, as against the ideal conditions of the Chinese mills, or printing establishments, etc.

Brentwood Bay Steam Plant Is Still Operating

The cessation of rain has involved the continuation of the operation of the Brentwood Bay steam plant, which was brought into use last week to take care of the power shortage at Jordan River. It was expected that the fall of rain would have filled the tributaries, and would enable the auxiliary plant to close down, but this has not yet happened. The plant at Brentwood will be retained meanwhile, according to information from the local office of the B. C. Electric Railway Company.

No anxiety of a serious water shortage is felt because the season for rain cannot long be delayed and then conservation will be possible.

Victorian's Stamp Collection Wins President's Cup at Montreal Show

Mr. Ronald Angus Takes Second Highest Award at Third Canadian Philatelic Exhibition With Unique Display of B.C. Stamps, Including Forgeries

A Victorian, Mr. Ronald Angus, of Newport Avenue, has won the President's Cup in the third Canadian Philatelic exhibition, which has just been held in La Salle Doree, Mount Royal Hotel, Montreal. While this fact has already been reported in The Colonist, further details will be of interest.

The President's Cup, it should be mentioned for the information of those who are not familiar with the grading of the awards, is the main award after the Grand Gold Medal, and was given to Mr. Ronald Angus for the finest display of stamps of any one Province in Canada. Mr. Angus also received the silver medal in another class in which the same lot of stamps was exhibited.

The collection with which this Victorian collector won his award is stated by philatelists to be the finest display of British Columbia and Vancouver Island stamps in the whole of Canada. At the second Canadian Philatelic Exhibition held last year at Winnipeg, Mr. Angus took the silver medal with his collection, which at that time was considerably smaller than it has since become, numbering 175 stamps. It is now a complete collection of the stamps of this Province. Most of the rare stamps are represented by several specimens.

Forgeries The layman who takes as much store in the details of a false stamp as of a good one will be interested in the forgeries supplement which Mr. Angus has furnished with his collection. For this reference collection he received honorable mention, this being the nearest approach to an award made in the forgery class. Most of the known types of forgeries were shown, and it is interesting to learn that all of them were made on the continent of Europe for sale to collectors who were not familiar with the originals, and not for the purpose of deceiving the postoffice.

The foreign origin of some of these forgeries is evident from the crude spelling used upon some of them. One forgery of the dollar stamp, for example, has the word "Dollar," a mistake which would probably only be made by a non-English speaking person. Mr. Angus made a note of the fact that although the forgeries were reproduced at great expense to the forger, who had to manufacture plates, type, paper, materials, etc., yet despite this they took little pains to observe the major details correctly in most of the types, and the stamps could only have deceived the merest tyro at any time.

Unique Collection The forgery collection is stated to be unique, as it shows all the later values in complete sheets, in which state they are not known in any other collection.

The British Columbia Philatelic Society is holding an exhibition in Vancouver on November 6 and 7, and the stamps again showing his collection there.

Victorians may have noticed the special cancellation that is being used by the Vancouver postoffice, which advertises the forthcoming exhibition. The cancellation shows a rough draft of the first stamp issued for general use in British Columbia, said to have been designed by a Victorian and adopted by the printers in London, England, with but slight alterations.

seed growing contest made, and prizes will be presented to the winners by Mrs. R. P. Butchart.

Enjoyable Programme—At the conclusion of the address of Mr. Pooley, M.P.P., and Mr. H. Despard Twigg, M.P.P., last night at the Conservative rally in the Esquimalt Club, presided in Mr. C. H. Dickie's interests, a splendid programme of entertainment numbers was presented. The artists who contributed were Mrs. E. R. Bowden, the Misses Farley, and Messrs. Ernie Impett, E. S. Blair, Jack Burke, Croft and Farley.

For Cripple's Fund—The concert held at the Playhouse on behalf of the crippled lad, Donald Fraser, yesterday afternoon, proved a success, and it has been decided that the performers will make another appearance, probably at the Coliseum Theatre, at a later date. The same objective, Mr. F. Merryfield, who was billed to appear, was unable to participate owing to the funeral of a brother, who was killed on duty Saturday evening.

November 7 Is Date of Annual Poppy Day Here

Arrangements for Armistice Event Are Nearing Completion—Poppies Already in Demand in City

Disaster Victims Aided

Arrangements for Poppy Day, which will be held Saturday, November 7 this year, are nearing completion. On Tuesday evening a meeting of the ladies representing the ex-service organizations in the city was held in the Canadian Legion club-rooms, and Mrs. H. P. Thorpe and Mrs. H. Crocker were again appointed joint conveners.

By the action of the B. C. Land & Investment Company, Limited, the Armistice Period Committee has been granted the use of a store at 1277 Government Street. The store will be open every afternoon, beginning next Monday, from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Large and small poppies are on hand and orders are being taken from city storekeepers for large quantities for their windows. A complete canvass of the storekeepers is being made and the committee hopes that every store will purchase at least a few poppies for decoration purposes.

The joint conveners of the poppy tag day are very anxious to secure the names of ladies willing to assist on Saturday, November 7. Any ladies in a position to render assistance are asked to telephone Mrs. H. P. Thorpe, phone 5403X, or Mrs. H. Crocker, phone 5548R, within the next few days.

Orders for poppies have already been received from Lieutenant-Governor W. C. Nichol, the Provincial Government, the C.P.R. and prominent places of business in the city. By next Tuesday, poppies will have been delivered to more than thirty schools in Victoria and district.

At the last meeting of the Armistice Period Committee the sum of $100 was voted to the Mayor's fund for the dependents of those drowned in the recent tugboat disaster.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—New low records for an early winter were established today over the Middle West, and will continue another day, the weather bureau announced today.

Sir Henry Cowan Will Arrive in City Tomorrow

Member for North Islington Has Been Attending Sessions of Interparliamentary Union

Problem of Migration

That the solution of the British Empire's greatest problems at the present time lies in a vigorous policy of interempire migration is the opinion of Sir Henry Cowan, M.P. for North Islington, who with Lady Cowan and Miss Jean Cowan, their daughter, reached Vancouver yesterday morning over the Canadian Pacific from Haniff, en route to Victoria, where they are due tomorrow.

Sir Henry attended the recent conference of the interparliamentary union of the world which met early this month in Washington, D.C., and Ottawa. "After traveling across Canada for the first time in twenty-five years I have been greatly impressed with the obvious impossibility of developing the country and its enormous resources within any reasonable period unless a much more vigorous immigration policy is undertaken," Sir Henry said in Vancouver.

The great weakness of the British Empire today lies in the concentration of the overwhelming proportion of its white population within the small and congested areas of the British Isles while the vast imperial estates of the great Dominions are but so sparsely populated as at present.

"In view of the fact that Great Britain is expending such huge sums on the maintenance of the out-works, it seems to me that it would be good business to borrow even £100,000,000 or £200,000,000 sterling to be used to transfer to Canada and Australia large numbers of British people who are willing and able to work and for whom work cannot be found in their own country.

"In fact, it would pay us to deliver free to any one of the Dominions the working population which the Dominions so urgently require. The details of such a scheme would, of course, take care of the problem of selection, which should be handled by the Dominions' representatives in Great Britain."

Sweden Employs More Women STOCKHOLM, Oct. 28.—The number of women working for the state has almost doubled since 1923. The Swedish Government's civil service list showed 17,177 women employees last year, forming one-sixth of the government officials.

THE electorate of Canada is voting today on 580 candidates from whom to select 245 members of the House of Commons. ## Your Birthday

October 29.—You have a painstaking nature, but rather inclined to worry too much. Cultivate hope, read more, and take an interest in other folk. You are fond of children, love to be out of doors, and take a keen interest in sports. When love comes you will be very happy. Your birthstone is the opal, which means hope. Your flower is the hop. Your lucky colors are yellow and white.

Employees Entitled To Time Off Today

Old Law Stands, Says Labor Secretary—Neill Amendment Overlooked

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—P. M. Draper, secretary of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, today issued the following statement in connection with the half holiday proclaimed for election day: "The question of a half holiday was brought up in the House of Commons July 15, by A. Neill, M.P. for Comox-Alberni, who moved an amendment, striking out section 15 of the Dominion Election Act, and inserting the following: 'The afternoon of polling day shall be a general public holiday in Canada.'"

"Mr. Neill's amendment was carried by 54 to 22. Curiously enough, however, through a clerical oversight the amendment was not sent to the law branch of the House and was, therefore, not included in the bill thereunder consideration, and consequently did not become law. "To meet the evident wish of parliament, the royal proclamation has been issued declaring Thursday a public holiday. As I am advised, however, the royal proclamation cannot be regarded as mandatory. No employer of labor is compelled to give Thursday afternoon as a public holiday. It is entirely optional with him. As it is, the old law prevails and in order that the workers of Canada may understand the situation, I quote it herewith: 'Every employer shall, on polling day, allow to every elector in his employ at least two additional hours other than the noon hour, for voting, and no employer shall make any deduction from the pay of any such elector nor impose upon or exact from him any penalty by reason of his absence during such hours.'"

"In other words, employers must allow their employees two hours over and above the lunch hour without reduction of pay."

Chubb: "Do you believe in the doctrine of reincarnation?"
Dubitt: "There must be something in it, my boy. I know a woman of thirty who distinctly remembers things that happened forty years ago."

Hope Disaster Benefit Fund Will Be Aided

Function for Sufferers of Bentnick Island Disaster
Will Be Held on Sunday Evening

Under Notable Patronage

His Honor Lieutenant-Governor
Nichol and Mrs. Nichol will be present at the benefit concert being arranged for the dependents of the victims of the Bentnick Island disaster.
Mayor Pendergast and the City Council, and Reeve Macneil and the councillors of Saanich have also signified their intention of being present. It is expected that the Coliseum Theatre,

where the event has been arranged to take place at 8:30 o'clock on Sunday evening, will be filled to capacity.
A programme of exceptional talent
has been prepared by Mr. H. R. Webb, who, with Mr. F. A. Rayner and Mrs.
R. W. Raven, is responsible for arrangements, under the auspices of the Victoria branch of the Navy League of Canada.

It is felt that the benefit concert
affords an opportunity to those citizens who wish to contribute a small amount to the fund to do so on Sunday evening when a collection will be taken to augment the Mayor's fund.

It is pointed out that owing to the generosity of all concerned in the arrangements, every cent of the collection will be turned over to the fund and the amount made known before the close of the concert.

The Dangers of Advancing Years

WITH advancing years, comes a natural lowering of vitality. The assimilation of proper nourishment from ordinary foods becomes more difficult. The body becomes more susceptible to disorders, and less able to withstand the attacks of disease.

"Ovaltine" is a form of nourishment particularly suited to the needs of elderly and aged people. It is almost completely absorbed by the system—more easily digested than milk.
Containing the life-giving elements—of fresh,
creamy milk, eggs, barley malt and cocoa, it tones, strengthens and invigorates every organ and tissue of the body. One cup contains more nutriment than 3 eggs or 12 cups of beef tea.

A cup of "Ovaltine" taken just before retiring ensures restful sleep.

Cumberland Has Water Problem

Report Is Received on Present Situation—Offer to Pull
Stumps Rejected

CUMBERLAND, Oct. 28.—Very short was this week's session of the City Council, the whole proceedings occupying hardly more than three-quarters of an hour. In attendance were Mayor Charles J. Parnham, Aldermen Maxwell, Mumford, Potter,
Jeffrey, Mullen and City Clerk Cope.
Only two communications were on hand, and these were promptly ordered received and filed. The first was from the local School Board stating that in future it would not be responsible for payment of cheque
books supplied the board by the City Council, and the second was from Premier Oliver, enclosing a copy of the proposed town planning bill.

Water Shortage
For the water committee, Alderman
Jeffrey reported that the pump at Comox Lake went out of commission
Sunday evening but the company expected to have it again in working order before the end of the week. In the meantime, he reported, water was being supplied from the city dams. In connection with the water situation, Mayor Parnham stated that he had visited the dams on Sunday and had found that the water in No. 1 was approximately four feet below the spillway, and that the height in the nine hundred foot dam was only three feet.

Clearing Stumps
Under the heading of unfinished business, the city clerk read an offer from Messrs. John H. Brown and A.
Gibson re pulling stumps on Fifth Street from Allan Avenue to Dunsmuir Avenue, such work to be completed within sixty days. The city had originally called for tenders for this work but none had been received, and in view of this fact the council did not feel justified in accepting the offer submitted. In addition, some of the terms of the offer were not to the city's liking.

The clerk was instructed to write
Mr. Brown and Mr. Gibson that the council could not see its way clear to accept their offer. In rough figures it called for an outlay by the city of approximately $500.

Sooke Social News

North Saanich Social Club Holds Gathering

SIDNEY, Oct. 28.—The North Saanich Liberal Association held an enjoyable social evening in Berquet Hall on Monday. The local orchestra provided excellent music for the dancing, which was a prominent part of the entertainment. Mrs. Knight, of Victoria, rendered four delightful
songs, and Mr. M. Jackson, R.C.C., gave a short address. Dainty refreshments were served by a committee of ladies, after which the dancing continued till one a.m.

The North Saanich Social Club held their regular meeting in the club house, an excellent attendance. Fifteen tables played progressive five hundred, and there were three independent tables. The ladies prize was won by Miss K.
Lorenson and the gentlemen's by Mr.
Samsbury. Owing to the card game starting at eight instead of eight-thirty, as formerly, a longer dance was enjoyed, the music being furnished by Mrs. McLean in her usual excellent manner. Dainty refreshments were served by Mesdames Quinton, Kemp, Hill and J. Readings.
The next meeting of the club will be held on Saturday, October 31, and it is hoped that all members will wear fancy dress and masks in keeping with the spirit of the day. The band is progressing very well under the tutelage of Mr. Brett and Mr. Hinkie, of Victoria.

Mr. R. Davis, Swarts Bay, has returned from Saskatchewan, where he has been residing for some time past.

Miss A. Lorenson, of Victoria, spent the week-end at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lorenson, School Cross Roads.

Miss Gladys Bowcott, of Victoria, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Bowcott, Queen's Avenue.

Miss B. Brethour is visiting relations in Sidney for a few days.

Dies at Cumberland

funeral of the late Mrs. Thelma Burbury, who died last Saturday evening, was held yesterday afternoon from the family residence, Second Street,
to the Cumberland cemetery. Rev.
Eric O. Robathan officiating. A large cortege of friends followed the remains to their last resting place. The late Mrs. Burbury was in her seventeenth year, twenty-six of which she spent in Cumberland. She is survived by five daughters and two sons.

Victim of Blood Poisoning

CUMBERLAND, Oct. 28.—The death occurred yesterday morning of Eleanor Mery, eldest daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. R. Davis, well-known residents of Cumberland. The young girl, who was in her fourteenth year, was a victim of blood poisoning, death
coming at an early hour yesterday morning after an illness lasting only a few days. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon and will be attended by many of her school chums.

Request Comes to Delay Execution

Application to Be Made to Postpone Hanging of O. Baker
Till January 14

An application will be made to Mr.
Justice Murphy in Chambers, Friday morning, to postpone the date of execution of Owen Baker, convicted of murdering Capt. W. Gills, of the Beryl G. This application will be made in view of the fact that there is an appeal pending against his conviction before the Supreme Court of Canada.

Mr. R. C. Lowe, who is counsel for Baker, has received notice that the appeal has been duly entered at Ottawa and will, therefore, come up at the next sitting of the court which opens next week.

Consultation with the Attorney-General's department by Mr. Lowe has resulted in an agreement to ask that the date of execution be now postponed until January 14, which is the date set for the carrying out of the death sentence upon Charles E.
Morris, who was convicted here last week of being a party to the murder of Capt. Gills.

Lady Cowan Will Speak Here, Monday

President of British Women's Patriotic League to Address
Canadian Women

Lady Cowan, president of the British Women's Patriotic League, who will be the speaker at the meeting of the Women's Canadian Club, Monday, November 2, at 8:30. The hour has been arranged for the convenience of members wishing to attend
the opening of the Legislature.
Lady Cowan is an experienced speaker, and as the organization in which she is interested has aims closely allied to those of the Women's Canadian Club, her address should be of considerable interest. Her husband,
Sir Henry Cowan, is one of the members for Islington, London, in the British House of Commons and has been attending the Interparliamentary
Union sessions in Ottawa.

Mrs. Gableigh (at the shore)—I often wonder what the wild waves are saying.
Husband—Nothing, Maria. They are like some people I know, they make a great deal of noise but they don't say anything.

Specialty Dancers at the Press Club Ball

GEORGE BRYDON

EILEEN ALLWOOD

GEORGE Brydon and Eileen Allwood, specialty dancers of the Coliseum Company, who will demonstrate the Charleston, the Reynard Trot and his other up-to-the-minute dances tomorrow night at the Press Club Ball at the Empress Hotel.

The programme will be interspersed with a series of gay specialties. One surprise will follow another to the completion of what will doubtless be the brightest event the Press Club has ever staged, and Charlie Hunt and his orchestra will have no space to breathe. The decorations, which are surprisingly weird and wonderful, are being arranged on the most novel lines, enhanced by clever lighting effects.

A misapprehension exists that there will be congestion, but precautions have been taken against such a condition by limiting the number of tickets.
There is no time to lose; tickets are going, going . . .

Salvation Army Makes Plans To Celebrate General's Birthday

Intention Is to Raise $25,000 in Western Canada as Birthday Gift to Head of Army, Who Celebrates Seventieth Anniversary on March 8 Next

General Bramwell Booth of the Salvation Army, who was a boy ten years of age when his father, a Methodist minister, started his mission in the East End of London, will observe his seventieth birthday on March 8 next. In honor of this event, the Salvation Army people of Western Canada, in common with army people in eighty-one countries, are planning special efforts to cover the next four months.

In November and December the effort will be made to raise in Western Canada the sum of $25,000, which will be a birthday gift to the head of the Army. This money will be used as a memorial of thanksgiving to the life and work of the General, and in accordance with the desire it will be applied in the following way:

1. The erection of four halls for Salvation Army purposes in China. . . . $10,000
2. The erection and equipment of dispensaries in native
reserves in Africa. . . . 6,000
3. The erection of a hall for hall for native work in Kenya. . . . 2,500
4. The erection of fifteen village halls in India. . . . 1,800

Total . . . . . $25,000

Donations Planned

It is proposed to raise this amount as far as possible within the Army organization. Under the plan each officer will give one-half of his or her allowance for one week, or collect an equivalent sum; each soldier will give or collect five cents, and each of the young people one cent for each year of the life of the General; each brass band will give or raise 35 per member; territorial headquarters will raise $3,500; the Training College, $500, and the social institutions,
$2,400. All this money is expected to be in hand at the close of the year.
While the campaign for money will come first, the chief emphasis of the army is being placed on a special effort of evangelism to be known as the
"Win One More" campaign and which is to be extended through the months
of January and February.

Three points will be emphasized, in accordance with the lifelong efforts of the General, in this spiritual campaign. The first of these is the restoration of the backslider, the second is reconciliation, and the third is the work in non-Christian lands.

The campaign of January and February will be formally opened at the watch-night service, December 31,
and will be divided into nine sections,
each covering one week. The concluding service will be held on the birthday of the General, March 8.

In Nine Sections

The first week will be known as the week of reconciliation, in which estranged comrades are asked to become reconciled. The second week will open with a special tea, to which all soldiers and backsliders will be invited. The third week will be the week of prayer, for the success of the campaign, for the poor, the sick, sorrowing and bereaved, for the people of non-Christian lands, for the inmates of institutions, for the homeless and the children, for the leaders of the army and God's people everywhere, and finally for the country.
The fourth week will be marked by
to be in hand at the close of the year.
While the campaign for money will
come first, the chief emphasis of the
army is being placed on a special effort of evangelism to be known as the
"Win One More" campaign and which
is to be extended through the months
of January and February.

"A friend suggested that I stop boiling the clothes I

"I found that Rinso is excellent for removing finger

"It has cut my house cleaning troubles in half and consequently I felt that it was only your due to know

Wednesday Soccer Teams Show Improvement in Play

Three Games Played Yesterday Prove Much Better Than Previous Week—Rennie & Taylor, Hudson's Bay and Tillicums Are Winners—Close Matches

A marked improvement was shown by all the Wednesday League soccer teams in their games played yesterday afternoon, and the mid-week follow-up of the games were handed some exhibitions well worth watching. At Central Park Rennie & Taylor's eleven repeated its success of last week by winning from Kirkhams by a score of three to one. At Beacon Hill the newly-formed Navy team fell victims of the Hudson's Bay in an interesting encounter by a score of two to nil. The Tillicums, at Work Point, went out on a scoring rampage and at the end of the game were the long end of a seven-to-one score.

Hudson's Bay Wins

The Hudson's Bay football team scored its first win at Beacon Hill Park when it downed the Navy by a score of two to nil. The team put up a splendid exhibition of football and the combination of both squads showed a marked difference to that of the previous week.

No goals were registered in the first half, although both sides had some splendid openings. In the second half, playing uphill, the Navy seemed to get together better and a few minutes after the start they registered the opening score. Fifteen minutes later they added another and put the game in the bag.

The tide in the first half had quite an edge on the play and several times forced the issue in around the Navy's goal. Their shooting, however, was erratic and several chances were booting away. Any shots that were directed on the goal were badly taken care of by Percy Shrimpton, the Navy's goalie.

Miss Penalty Shot

Just before the whistle sounded for half time, the left fullback of the department store team, accidentally handled the ball in the forbidden area and a penalty was awarded. Johnson took the shot, but Shrimpton threw himself about half foot and fended the ball clear.

About five minutes after the second half started Carey opened the scoring for the Navy with a lucky shot. Taking the ball down the left wing, Carey sent in a terrific drive which hit the Navy's right back and glanced into the corner of the net, giving his goal a good chance of being scored.

For a period of five minutes or so after the face-off the Navy made several attacks in an effort to even the score. Twice they had good openings but they failed to come through at the opportune moment. Once, two of the Navy got right by the defense, but Kevell must have thought he was playing rugby and he picked up the ball to try for a drop. No points are allowed for this in soccer, he was informed by the referee with the usual free kick was allotted to the Navy.

The Second Goal

About halfway through the period Webber put the Navy two in the lead when he put in a long shot that dropped between the goalposts and slid into the net. The goalkeepers, following both teams had good openings, but there were no further goals registered. Hewson refereed and the teams were as follows: Rennie & Taylor's, Hudson's Bay, Shrimpton, Gardiner, McKay, Mayne, Webber, Kevell, Clarke, Woodley, Gibson, Harrison and Carey.

Navy's Suffer

Navy's Suffer, Hall, Johnson, Whyte, Freshwater, Harvey, Glenave, Grosvenor, Ewell, Roberts and Burden.

Bakers Repeat

Rennie & Taylor's soccer eleven won their second straight victory of the season at Central Park at the expense of Kirkhams by a score of three to one. In the first half the game was keenly contested as the 1-1 score at the conclusion of this half would denote in the second period, however, experience told and the bakers walked in a pair of goals while the grocery eleven found it impossible to improve its total.

Displaying a greatly improved brand of soccer since their last appearance, Kirkhams gave Rennie & Taylor an exciting time. Opening the scoring after fifteen minutes of grueling play they were going strong and looked like winners, but the bakers brought their attacking forces into action and evened the score with about ten minutes to go of half-time. Kirkhams fought hard for a lead, but their work in front of the goal was lacking in the necessary finish. The whistle found the teams with a 1-1 score.

Second Half

For the first ten minutes of the second half the grocery eleven had their more experienced opponents on the hop and for a while they looked like handling the bakers their first defeat. However, after fifteen minutes of play, Speak put the bread men in the lead with a perfect drive. Still on the offensive, the bakers made their lead stronger when McKinnon scored the third and last goal of the match. The losers made a gallant attempt to retrieve lost honors in the concluding stages of the game, but they could not get through the strong defence of the bakers.

Commendable Showing

The showing that Kirkhams made is highly commendable and with a little more practice they should give the teams in the mid-week soccer loop a merry good time. Yesterday's game was refereed by Arthur Harris.

At Work Point

Playing a mediocre brand of soccer, the Tillicums accounted for a weakened Garrison team by a 7-1 score at Work Point. In the first half the eventual winners were leading by a 3-1 score, but in the last stanza they brought their total up to seven. The Garrison opened the scoring in the first twenty minutes of the game, when Harry found the net during an attack on the part of the Tommies' forwards. From this point the Tillicums returned the play and fifteen minutes later the teams were on even terms when Fletcher scored from the goal line. Patterson and Tooby each scored in the next five minutes and when the whistle sounded for half-time the Tillicums were leading a 3-1 score.

In the second half the clubmen had the better of the play, except for a brief period in the middle of this half. Woods and Tooby scored once, while Southern registered a pair, making the total score Tillicums seven, Garrison one.

Alcock refereed and the teams were:

Tillicums—Peden, McIntyre and Armstrong; Hall, Moulton and Rutledge; Patterson, Fletcher, Southern, Woods and Tooby.

Garrison—Matthews, Morrison and Watt; Mitchell, Brown and McVie; Bryson, Falconer, Sweeney, Wallace and Henry.

Masked Marvel Is the Winner

Leads Pons Asinorum by Length to Win Cambridge Stakes for Macomber

NEWMARKET, Eng., Oct. 28.—Masked Marvel, out of Maskara, and owned by A. K. Macomber, won the Cambridge Stakes carrying 11.000 lbs. with extras at nine furlongs here today.

A. Lowry's Pons Asinorum was second and Sir William Cooke's Blue Peter, third, in a field of twenty-four. Masked Marvel won by a length, half a length separating Pons Asinorum and Blue Peter.

The betting was 100-8 against for each. Brighter London set the pace for half a mile, followed by Masked Marvel, Tontin, Mademoiselle M. Blue Peter, Pons Asinorum, Twelve Pointer, Runderland and Verdier. Masked Marvel then headed Brighter London, the pair being pursued by Dawson City, Twelve Pointer, Blue Peter and Pons Asinorum. Rounding the turn at the bushes, Pons Asinorum improved his position, and at Abington Bottom reached second to Masked Marvel. He answered and thus failed to get on even terms with the leader, who won by a length and a half.

Twelve Pointer, the favorite, finished fifth. Masked Marvel's time was 1:53 2-5 for the mile and a furlong.

Nationalists Wins

From Tommy O'Brien At Portland Armory

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 28.—Young Nationalists, flashy Filipino bantam of Los Angeles, smashed his way through on rounds to win over Tommy O'Brien in a return match at the Armory here last night.

O'Brien led off with a smashing right which failed to do much damage on account of the Filipino boy's shiftness. The Irishman held the advantage on his aggressiveness the first round. Young Nationalists came to the front in the sixth and in the seventh had O'Brien at his mercy.

The bell saved O'Brien from a knockout. The last two rounds were Nationalists' by a wide margin. In the semi-windup Midget Smith, of Salt Lake, took a decision from Benny Dobson, of Portland.

left arm fall just a little bit at the top of the swing, not much, but enough to feel the rhythm and that you are going to hit the ball. There is no mistaking when you hit the ball with real rhythm.

Young golfers are apt to be too strong in the swing, but golf is a game where brute force cannot make the clubhead do its work. It is surprising how much of the job is done by the clubhead properly introduced into the ball. Do not swing ahead of your clubhead. That is like a prizefighter who punches without getting his weight behind the blow. It is inaccurate placing of the clubhead at the time of impact that invariably makes you get your hands off the ball off the tee rather than hit it off and maybe the hands will propel the clubhead. My tip is to let the

I take great care not to get my weight ahead of the shot and I am careful not to straighten my left arm, stiffly at the top of the back swing, for it will have a tendency to sweep the ball off the tee rather than hit it off and maybe the hands will propel the clubhead. My tip is to let the

Look for Keen Boxing Revival

B.C. Championships to Be Held in Vancouver-Dominion Events on Coast

VANCOUVER, Oct. 28.—Several amateur boxing shows will precede the British Columbia championships which will be staged in Vancouver early in December, according to the plans of President Bert Tennant, of the B.C.A.A.U. At present members of the executive are quietly making plans and it is expected that a meeting will be held after Bert Davison, Provincial registrar, returns to the city.

With the Canadian championships awarded to British Columbia, there is every prospect of a keen revival of interest in the sport. A number of excellent matches are in sight. President Tennant is awaiting word from the East regarding the date of the Pan-American championships, for it is possible that several Canadian champions will be sent south to compete in the Canadian title bouts which will be held in January.

The Canadian championships have been awarded to British Columbia and that it would be the strongest of any of the fifteen representing that province in the past. The team will arrive on Saturday morning and leave on Monday evening.

A letter from Edmonton said that a strong team was being rounded up and that it would be the strongest of any of the fifteen representing that province in the past. The team will arrive on Saturday morning and leave on Monday evening.

Until this year Compton had not been heard of outside his own neighborhood. Now he is the most talked-about British professional. He is not a prizefighter, but a professional since his seventeenth year. But he is young here.

There is none of the "bobby Jones" smooth rhythm in the way he hits a ball; and the eye catches little of the grace and neatness of Abe Mitchell. Compton has the bulging brow, the stern jaw, the crudely chiseled features. He swings into the ball like a cave-man bumping off a bear for Sunday dinner. The stroke is coarse and crude—but it is accurate and it generally achieves its end. It isn't so crude now as it once was, for Compton is the most astute man in British golf so far as practice goes. It may not make him perfect, but it has put him on top of the professional pack.

Compston Not So Keen on Style

Manchester Giant Leading British Golf Pros Plays to Win, and Generally Does So

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Leading all the golf professionals of Great Britain this season is Archie Compston, a strong, silent giant from the great closed spaces of the Industrial Midlands.

Not for Compston are the neat and natty ways of most of the golf masters of this country and America. No matter how great a gallery is waiting to watch him play, Compston does not strut out to the tee with slicked hair, pressed suit, four, polished brogues or stockings of gorgeous hue and complex design. He comes on the course wearing an old pair of woolen trousers, stained by some sun and a great deal of rain. Above them is an equally aged and unattractive sweater, and below a pair of unpolished shoes that Charlie Chaplin might envy. No tweed cap adorns his head, and the hair seems seldom brushed.

He Gets There But he gets there just the same. No longer is Abe Mitchell, with his neatly pressed tweeds and graceful strokes, regarded as the master of all the masters of match play. Twice this year Compston has met him in important tournaments, with big purses at stake, and both times the man from Manchester has beaten Mitchell. In addition to winning both of these tournaments and several minor ones, Compston was the only British player to give any of the American aggregation who captured the honors again in the British open championship. He finished only a stroke behind Jim Barnes, the winner.

There is a wealth of personality about Compston, and personality of a sort that is rare on the green. He is a man of English golf courses. His presence topples over the theory that the game is the thing after all, and not victory. Compston plays to win, and unlike many others, he admits it. The fact simply exudes from him. With a scowl unlike the one Dempsey carries into the ring, the stern jaw, the crudely chiseled features, and by vicious practice swings and his frightful all, but the bravest of opponents. It is to be said that he is not a prizefighter, but a professional since his seventeenth year. But he is young here.

Macomber Cleans Up Quarter Million by Masked Marvel's Win

LONDON, Oct. 28.—As a result of the victory of Masked Marvel in the Cambridge Stakes today, A. K. Macomber, American turfman and owner of the horse, is richer by $250,000. Several weeks ago bookmakers laid him odds of 500 to 1 against his entry in the race for the Linton and the classic Cesarewitch. He invested 100 pounds and won. Macomber's fortune captured the Cesarewitch.

There were four boats in the contest, representing Seattle, San Francisco, Victoria and Vancouver. Seattle being the defender of both cups in the first race, sailed in a light breeze, Sir Tom won handsily, with Turenne representing Victoria in second place, Riowna third, and Lady V the California boat, last.

In the second race the breeze was lighter, though variable, and Sir Tom had some very anxious moments, but finally finished forty-five seconds ahead of Riowna, which was representing Victoria in second place, Riowna third, and Lady V the California boat, last.

Ancient Submerged City Located in Caspian Sea

Ship Stumbled Across Undersea Town—Streets and Buildings Plainly Detected in Bright Sunshine—Find Believed to Be Lost Kharadashgar

MOSCOW, Oct. 28.—The discovery of an ancient submerged city near Shikhe, a sandy bank on the Caspian Sea, was made today by Alexei Atayeff, a captain of the Soviet mercantile fleet. Atayeff's ship, bound from Persia to Baku, "accidentally" changed her usual course, while soundings were being made, and he noticed buildings on the sea floor. Atayeff asserts that under the bright sunshine he was enabled to distinguish streets and buildings of ancient Asiatic architecture. A further investigation revealed a well preserved roadway leading to the Baku fortress. Archaeologists are of the opinion that the discovery reveals the lost city of Kharadashgar, which is believed to have been submerged centuries ago by an earthquake which altered the whole coastline. Local inhabitants have the tradition that several other cities were destroyed by the earthquake.

Large Majority For Mr. Dickie Predicted Here

Mr. R. H. Pooley, Tells Esquimaux Electors Conservative Party Will Restore Prosperity in Canada

Liberals Avoiding Issue

Today Canada is at the crossroads, and the people of this Dominion will trust the Conservative Party to run the country, retain the natural resources and manufacture them here, keep Canadians at home, create more industries, make more business for the farmers, prevent the Americans from making this land a dumping ground for their produce, and usher in a state of prosperity that will benefit all Canadians. Mr. R. H. Pooley, M.P.P. for Esquimaux and Conservative leader in the British Columbia Legislature, declared last night in the Esquimaux Club, at the final rally in Esquimaux in the interests of Mr. C. H. Dickie, Conservative standard-bearer in the Naamlo riding.

Esquimaux electors turned out in large numbers and enthusiastically supported the policies of Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Federal Conservative chieftain, as outlined by Mr. R. H. Pooley and Mr. H. Despard Twigg, both Provincial Conservative members. Predictions of Conservative victory throughout Canada today at the polls were greeted with prolonged applause.

"I notice that Hon. Mr. Sloan claims a majority of 1,000 for Mr. Booth, Liberal candidate, over Mr. Dickie. I think he means that Mr. Booth will get 1,000 votes at the election. Naamlo constituency Conservatives are sure of a majority of 1,000 for Mr. Dickie, and I think we can expect a similar majority for Dr. Toimie over the Liberal candidate in Victoria," said the chairman, Mr. T. H. Slater, amid cheers.

Keep Home Fires Burning
Canadians must keep the home fires burning, declared Mr. Pooley, who said that this country would make mad progress if the Conservative Party returned to power today to the Conservative Party with its protectionist policy in the interests of the country as a whole.

The Conservative leader exhibited one of Mr. Booth's election cards, and answered in detail each of the statements therein contained. In replying to Mr. Booth's assertion that the Government had reduced expenses, Mr. Pooley recalled that it cost the Government 33 1/3 per cent more to run the Canadian National Railway than the C. P. R. cost to operate; that $240,000 was the travelling expense last year of Sir Henry Thornton, C. P. R. head, and that the Government spent several millions for a hotel in Paris. Mr. Booth claimed that the Government had lowered the cost of living. Mr. Pooley said that the people hadn't noticed any such thing. Some persons believed that if the Government raised living costs would be higher. This was not being borne out in Canada now. Although the tariff was down during the Mackenzie King regime, the cost of living had gone up, which fact had been shown by the Government's own figures, charged Mr. Pooley. During the corresponding period in the United States the cost of living had declined while the tariff was lowered.

Mr. Twigg Optimistic
Mr. H. Despard Twigg said he had just returned from a tour of the Island, had found Mr. Dickie's prospects of re-election very bright, and predicted that Mr. Colclough, Conservative nominee in Comox-Alberni, would give Mr. A. W. Nelli, member in the last House, one of the biggest shakes of his life.

The speaker said that the Liberals were trying to avoid the main issue of the election, the question of tariff, by talking about freight rates, immigration, and other matters. He pointed out that Mr. Meighen and the Conservative party did not advocate an abnormally high tariff, but one which would be equal with that existing in the United States. If Mr.

Meighen found that it was necessary to put the tariff higher than that basis, he would then make it higher, Mr. Twigg continued.

Drift Must Be Checked
"The drift of Canada, under the Mackenzie King administration, is toward the United States and things American must be checked. We need today in Canada a government which will keep Canada British. The Conservative party stands on guard for Canada," Mr. Twigg concluded.

Fascism to Stay Till Overthrown Says Mussolini

World Told Fascists Will Keep Power at All Costs—War Declared on Foreign Enemies

MILAN, Oct. 28.—Benito Mussolini, the Italian Fascist, announced to the world this evening that Fascism intends to control the destiny of Italy until overthrown by force.

Speaking in the Scala Opera House, which was packed to capacity with Fascists who had been celebrating the third anniversary of the historic march into Rome, Mussolini asserted that the power which had been seized by the bloodless revolution three years ago would remain in his hands or the hands of his followers.

It was the Mussolini of three years ago in Fascism's early triumphs, with the fire of conviction lighting up his face, still paled from previous illness, who confronted the wildly enthusiastic audience with the first definite proclamation of Fascist policy, a complete rejection of Parliamentaryism.

Not only did the Premier assert Fascism's intent to hold by force its conquest, but, in an earlier speech in the afternoon, he declared war against its foreign enemies.

This statement was made when he was standing in an automobile stranded amidst the Fascists filling Cathedral Square in Rome. He declared that Fascism would "vanquish international plutocracy and demagogism warring against Italy's interests as it crushed its internal enemies."

"Yes, My Dear," Says Preoccupied Counsel To Mr. Justice Gregory

"Yes, my dear," said Mr. Elmore Macdonald, Mr. Justice Gregory in Vancouver, when he was asked by the Canadian Immigration Department, an attempt by a Chinese to secure deportation to China. His Lordship asked at counsel for a few moments.

"Thank you, Mr. Meredith. I am glad to see you feeling so happy this morning," he replied with a smile. "My Lord," commenced counsel. "You don't need to explain. It is evidence of a happy home," said the judge.

"Perhaps it is evidence that I have had to argue before another tribunal," answered the counsel.

heard annexation talk in Canada. The situation in which Canada finds herself is precarious, and there never was a time when sound, serious thinking on the part of all the people was so essential.

Mr. Toimie declared that during the past four years Canada had suffered under a "jelly-fish" type of government. Mackenzie King was the greatest waster of words and user of empty terms he had ever seen or heard. He possessed a different policy and used different promises in each one of the various parts of Canada.

The Dominion, for its own salvation, must carry out a firm policy of "Canada first," Hon. Dr. Toimie continued, and the fabric of the country must be thoroughly renovated before expansion in the many ways so much desired could be looked for. Immigration was one of the most important methods of expansion, but before Canada could put into force a strong and efficient system of immigration, internal conditions must be made such that Canadians could find prosperity in their own country. Economy must be practised by the Government and the people. Speaking metaphorically, he declared, "What we require to do in this country is to make last year's suit last quite a while."

Liberal Bluff
Hon. Dr. Toimie characterized the sudden Liberal anxiety about Western Canada and Western Canada development as "all bluff." Why had not the Liberal Government carried out or started a policy of Western development four years ago, three years ago, or two years ago? Why had it held its hand until the eve of a general election?

"The Liberal cry of Western development is merely an eleventh-hour effort to catch votes," he charged. In conclusion, Dr. Toimie extended hearty thanks to the various committees and all party workers who had assisted him in the present campaign, and to the people of Victoria he expressed his appreciation of the support given to him during previous elections.

Mr. Lindley Crease, K.C., Mr. Crease, in the absence through lines of Mr. Reginald Hayward, M.P.P., presided over the meeting. He touched briefly on the conditions brought about in Canada by the Liberal Government which had led to the departure of over half a million Canadians for the United States during the past four years. He dealt with the exploitation of Canada's raw materials by the United States and the Liberal policy of allowing the indiscriminate shipment of such materials to the United States for manufacture there.

"The pioneers of Canada never intended when they fought back the Canadian wilderness in order to make homes, that their sons should become hewers of wood and drawers of water for a foreign country," he said. "I refer you to the memorial Victorians erected on the Parliament Building grounds in honor of those who gave their lives for Canada in the Great War and for those who served. Is it too much that now we, who are left should stand by our country in this time of commercial invasion?"

Major Gus Lyons, M.P.P.
Major Lyons, Hon. Dr. Toimie's campaign manager, predicted a sweeping victory for his principal. Party workers who had canvassed the city had all reported favorably, he said, and he believed the doctor's majority would be close to 3,000 votes. Mr. H. Despard Twigg, M.P.P., saw in the steady growth of United States influence in Canada during the past four years, a sinister effort on the part of that country to obtain complete commercial and perhaps physical control of the Dominion; and that with at least the knowledge of the Mackenzie King Government.

In spite of the fact that Canadians had on three occasions refused to consider reciprocity with the United States, Hon. Mr. Motherwell, Liberal Minister of Agriculture, had said in the House of Commons in 1924, these words, Mr. Twigg declared: "We are doing slowly now what we have tried and failed to do rapidly."

Less than a year ago, the speaker said, the United States Department of Commerce, had issued advice to United States manufacturers who had branches in Canada as follows: "There is a movement under way now which may considerably curtail the advantages of operating branch factories in Canada."

"What is that movement?" asked Mr. Twigg. "What did Mr. Motherwell mean?" Take the United States Commerce Department's warning and Mr. Motherwell's statements in conjunction and see what you make of it. "We sang tonight 'O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.' Are you going to stand on guard for Canada on election day?"

The auditorium was filled with shouts of affirmation.

Make Prosperity Return Urges Conservative Chief In Final Election Appeal

he continued, "and the atmosphere of doubt, timidity and uncertainty which, as a consequence, pervaded the country, resulted in a concentration of productive enterprise everywhere, resulted in the disabling of thousands of our factories; resulted in the reluctance of capital to invest in industry at all; resulted in a disposition to withdraw money already invested wherever this with safety could be done, and resulted in the draining of our land of many hundreds of thousands and the best of our life blood."

"Name me an article upon which this Government has backed at the tariff," he said, "and I will name you an article that today is as dear or dearer than it was before to every consumer in our country."

Protection Essential
"Surely the policy of the Conservative Party for an adequate tariff system was the proper one when every country in the world had such a policy of protection. Certainly a policy of protection as advanced by the Conservative Party which would stimulate our industries, give employment to our workmen, keep our money and our people in our country, was the only one that should be in effect."

A consequence, he declared, of the Government's policy "is that the stream of emigration is almost dried up."

What It Has Done
The results of the Government's policy were that "our debt is increasing at the rate of a million dollars a week; our taxes are higher; our population is drying up; a draining of our life blood; and the stream of emigration is almost dry. Are these evidences of sound policy? No. They are not, but are caused by a tariff by barter instead of a tariff by principle."

This could not continue. "If by any remote chance, asked Mr. Meighen, "this Government, with its Progressive alliance, has a majority in the new House, does any one believe it will not continue?"

A government composed of Liberals and Progressives, each depending on the other, was "bound to pursue the same compromise, the same drag and crawl, which has continued during the four years that have gone."

The people of the West had seen the consequences of the Government's disastrous policy, and "there will be more Conservatives elected between the Pacific Coast and Northern Ontario than there will be Liberals elected in that territory," he declared.

Win Assured
WINNIPEG, Oct. 28.—Expressing the greatest confidence in the outcome of the voting, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader and candidate for Portage la Prairie, last night wired his final message to the people of Manitoba as follows: "To all Canadians: This is my last word on the eve of victory in Canada's demand for a great constructive national policy. The call is insistent and strong. It comes from all parts of the country and it is heard from the farm, in the factory and throughout the business world. Temporarily must cease and action succeed it. Canadians everywhere are alive to the situation that Canada and her opportunities must be preserved for Canadians. We are going to win on Thursday. May you participate in the victory."

"Finally, I caution you to be vigilant and protect your heritage by casting your vote for the Conservative candidate so that for years to come the prosperity and development of Canada may be your reward."

British Fascists Haled Into Court

Three "Officers" Are Accused of Stealing Van Load of Labor Papers

LONDON, Oct. 28.—In connection with a recent seizure in Fleet Street early in the morning of a motor van containing copies of the Labor paper, The Daily Herald, four young men were charged in the Mansion House justice room today with stealing and receiving a motor van containing 8,000 copies of The Herald.

Three of the defendants had surrendered themselves to the authorities voluntarily. Two of these described themselves as battalion commanders and the third accused man said he was a warrant officer in the National Fascist. They all wore black shirts. One of them was distinguished by wearing a monocle.

The fourth accused man, only seventeen years old, previous to his arrest had bragged about his exploit at the Fascist headquarters, and the police told the magistrate that he owed his arrest to his own foolishness. He was discharged from court.

The trial of the other three was adjourned.

"Speed Wild" at Columbia Today

Lefty Flynn, Former Yale Star, Featured in Rapid Fire Thrilling Melodrama

"Speed Wild," the latest production featuring that popular and athletic Lefty Flynn, is a departure from the previous Westerns in which the former Yale star has appeared. Harry Garrison, who produced and directed "Speed Wild," has reason to be proud of his offering, for it supplies Lefty with his best role. Rapid-fire comedy-melodrama, filled with thrills, and a loveable boyish devil-may-care character for the star, ensure corking entertainment to the patrons of the Columbia Theatre, when the picture begins a three days' run. Raymond Turner again appears in a colored character, and comes through with his usual quota of laughs. H. H. Van Loan wrote the story.

"White Cargo" Opens at the Royal Tonight

Stark Raw Realism of Life in Tropics Breathes on Stage in Celebrated Play

For stark, raw realism, breathing life on the stage, theatergoers heretofore have been compelled to choose between "Annie Christie" and "Rain," but advance notices from New York (Chicago and other larger cities indicate that "White Cargo" is more creditable than "Annie Christie" and more logical than "Rain." The story is told in a way to make its tremendous climaxes inevitable. Imagination is rarely called upon. The whole thing is delivered with amazing, crashing blows.

Tropical atmosphere created by expert craftsmanship; atmosphere painted by the blazing sun, outdoors glare and indoors stifling heat and the blazing resentment of men huddled together in a small group, amid natives on the West Coast of Africa. A story from the refining influences of home and the company of women of their own race the loneliness of the jungle land gets them. "White Cargo" is a play of temptation, vigour in its treatment, never mind words. Its frank portrayal of life on the African West Coast, with all its work realities, makes it a problem of longevity. It is a slice of life cut with skill by its author, Leon Gordon, who has given the stage reputation because it is the truth, unaffected, undistorted and unadorned. The "White Cargo" will be the attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 29, 30, 31, with special Saturday matinee.

CAPITOL. "Graustark" was produced by Joseph M. Schenck. Directed by Dimitri Buchowetzki, the story of a mythical king-king and his adventures of the beautiful princess and her jewels that perfectly blend into the invigorating romance. Love and intrigue permeate the story that has delighted millions of fiction readers and now comes to the screen on a sumptuous scale.

COLISEUM. With something altogether new in moving pictures and a bright musical fantasy billed as the Coliseum, the large audiences attending the popular theatre this week find the show to their liking. The singing and dancing strength of the company is added to by the addition of Gladys Burton, a dainty subrette, who is right at home in the gay, sprightly stage presentation. This week, Mr. Marshall is taking a two weeks' rest, resting from the heavy strain of big roles for many months past.

DOMINION. Mack Morrell Swain is the name of the villain in the role of Big Jim McKay with Charlie Chaplin in "The Gold Rush," a United Artists Corporation production now playing at the Dominion Theatre. Swain's first picture work was in 1913, when he became a member of the old Keystone Comedy Company, joining this organization at just about the same time as did Charlie Chaplin. And it was with Charlie that he "grew up" on the screen. Both appeared together in almost all the early Keystone comedies. A great friendship exists between the two.

PLAYHOUSE. What wonders the theatre movies do perform! Marie Vivott, as the heroine of "The Wanters," the National picture at the Playhouse Theatre this week, has a modern Cinderella role that gives her the greatest dramatic opportunity of her career. As Myra Hastings, a demure little lady's maid, she is transformed over night into a society debutante.

Rothacker re-enact in this photoplay version of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's novel.

English School of Playing Represented By Alfred Hollins

The coming of Alfred Hollins, the famous blind organist, is arousing much interest among lovers of music, and judging from the opening day's ticket sale at Pletcher Brothers yesterday morning the remarkable English musician will receive a big reception when he plays here on Monday evening, November 5, at the organ of the Metropolitan United Church. It is regarded as a special opportunity to all music students and young people of the city to hear this gifted organist, and arrangements can be made by school groups, etc., to obtain special tickets.

Realtors Oppose Succession Duty

Board Reaffirms Objection to Form of Tax—Reduction Not Favored

The local Real Estate Board stands opposed to the Succession Duty. This was the statement made by Chairman Mr. J. C. Bridgman, at the luncheon of the organization held yesterday at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. The matter was brought up by Alderman A. E. Todd, who called attention to the fact that the Succession Duty, as it is known, is a tax on the transfer of property, and that it is a tax on the transfer of property, and that it is a tax on the transfer of property.

Mr. Bridgman said that a committee of the board had gone into the matter, and that they had found that the Succession Duty was a tax on the transfer of property, and that it was a tax on the transfer of property. He said that the board was opposed to the Succession Duty, and that it was a tax on the transfer of property.

He believed that the wiping out of the Succession Duty altogether would be of decided advantage to the city and to the province as a whole. There was only about $500,000 a year collected by this means. If it were wiped out the general increase in investments in the province would more than make up this loss through the increased income taxes received. The board considered that the decision reached some time ago in favor of the abolition of the Succession Duty should still stand.

Dr. Boggs Will Lecture Tonight

Arrangements have been made to announce the general results of the poll at the conclusion of the lecture. The meeting will conclude in time for all who desire more information to make the trip downtown.

Many Factories Locate in City During Year

Industrial Group Has Established Good Record—Mr. John Wood Selected as New Chairman

The new board of directors of the Industrial Group of the Chamber of Commerce was elected at the meeting yesterday, when the following were selected: Messrs. John Wood, M. P. Blair, R. H. Oliver, H. J. Pendray, E. H. Hailball, J. Gray and G. B. Mitchell. At a meeting of the directors held after the meeting Mr. Wood was selected as chairman.

Ald. M. P. Blair, the retiring chairman, reviewed the work of the year which, he said, had been a very satisfactory one as far as the increasing of industrial concerns in the city was concerned. Everything that could assist local business had been done and at the same time there had been a determined effort to interest new manufacturers to locate in the city.

The locating here of the McMaster-Horsens works was attituded to as indicating what could be done in the matter of following up inquiries. The eight men and this was to be followed by a larger enterprise in the locating of a cedar sawmill in conjunction with the company would also open up a logging camp somewhere on the West Coast.

Cooperation Enlarges
The cooperation that had been brought here was enlarging its business earlier than had been expected. Very shortly there would be 250 employees there, thus more than doubling the original plant.

There was another mill expected to come in which would devote itself to spruce alone. This concern had gone on far as to make application to the Government for a site alongside the co-opeage. It would employ about sixty-five or seventy men.

The Union Oil Company, had applied for adjoining space, which would dispose of all the sites on the Industrial Reserve waterfront, with the exception of the space between Turpe's Ways and the McMaster-Horsens mill.

Other Works Coming
There were also other companies showing an interest here, and Mr. Eastman, who had manifested such readiness to induce capital to come to Victoria, had given the information that there was another plant in Portland looking to this city with the idea of manufacturing furniture, with the plan of moving in view for part of the output.

Credit was given to the members of the group, and that they had been done in the matter and also to Mayor J. Carl Pendray, members of the City Council and the Government of the Province in aiding in the locating of industries.

Mr. George I. Warren reviewed the work done by the last Home Products Fair, which had been a success. The fair had done better than pay its way, he said. Chairman Blair considered that these fairs should be continued for the sake of arousing an interest in home-made products.

Religious Schooling
By Mail Tried for Isolated Children

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Religious instruction by mail for children in isolated and rural districts is the solution of the problem of those who live too far to attend Sunday school regularly, in the opinion of Miss Vera L. Noyes, supervisor of religious education in the Chicago Diocese of the Episcopal Church.

Miss Noyes has worked out a system that aims to bring religion into the every-day life of the child, "so that religion may be real, attractive, and effective."

"Each week the pupil receives through the mail material which will not only cause the child to learn something, but also to think and to do," she said. "The lessons are graded and planned to fit the needs of the various ages of childhood."

"And yet the correspondence is not for the child alone. It is creating in every home it touches a religious atmosphere."

City's Scheme Aids Realtors

Mayor Pendray Meets Real Estate Board and Outlines Advertising Scheme

At the luncheon of the Real Estate Board yesterday, Mayor J. Carl Pendray outlined the plan of the city with respect to the advertising of the reverted lands on the Prairies, and referred to the advantages that should accrue to the real estate men in particular and to the city as a whole by this campaign now in hand.

The Mayor pointed out that the desire of the city was to work through the real estate dealers wherever possible. There would be a great deal of interest attracted to Victoria by the advertising to be carried out under the scheme in hand and he advised the dealers to take the fullest advantage of this advertising in advancing their own business and at the same time making Victoria the mecca of the Prairie residents.

It was possible, the Mayor said, that the city might reap a real benefit from the reverted lands problem which had been the cause of so much anxiety in the past. In the move being undertaken the city was not trying to interfere with the real estate men. On the contrary, the desire was to co-operate to the fullest extent with them.

In meeting the objection that the Council had referred to the very heavy expenditures that were to be faced by the city, the Mayor pointed out that this expenditure would cover a term of years and need not be regarded as a serious matter.

Sowash Refused Reprieve by Ottawa

Minister of Justice Wires Prisoner's Counsel to Apply to Judge for Respite

VANCOUVER, Oct. 28.—Harry Sowash, convicted murderer, sentenced to die in October 1921 on November 4 for the death of Captain William J. Gillis, has been refused a reprieve by the Minister of Justice, and the Deputy Minister has wired Mr. James Lawrence, the prisoner's counsel here, that application for a respite in the carrying out of sentence should be made to a judge of a British Columbia court.

The Deputy Minister of Justice advised Mr. Lawrence to immediately communicate with the province's Attorney-General.

Mr. Lawrence, as a result, has notified Mr. Harvey, who defended Sowash, and recommended that he apply to a supreme court judge for a respite.

It is not anticipated that the application will be opposed by the Attorney-General for the reason that Owen Baker, who is appealing to the supreme court of Canada, will unquestionably be reprieved to enable him to prosecute his appeal.

Colonel Mitchell Under Technical Arrest at Trial

Court-Martial on Recalcitrant U.S. Air Officer at Washington and Two Members Forced to Retire

Defence Challenge Filed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Colonel William Mitchell began his defence at his court-martial here today by driving from the bench two members of the court, including its president, Major-General Charles P. Summerall. General Summerall withdrew on his motion after he had been charged with prejudice against the defendant and Brigadier-General A. J. Howley was disqualified by his colleagues on the court after a defence challenge had been lodged against him on similar grounds.

Colonel Mitchell was placed under technical arrest today by order of Brigadier-General Samuel D. Rockenbach, commanding the district of Washington, in whose jurisdiction the trial will be held.

Captain Fielder cautioned the air officer that he must remain, until the court proceedings are terminated, within the limits of Washington. That restriction on the colonel's movements has been in force for the past several weeks and the arrest today carried with it no proposal of restraint or other confinement.

Real Estate Men Ask That Vacant Property Be Better Protected

A special committee of the Real Estate Board will be named by the president to wait upon the Police Commissioners of the city asking that more vigorous steps be taken to protect vacant property from the depredations of those who persist in breaking windows and doing other damage to the buildings. It will also be requested that the culprits shall be properly punished for the damage done.

This action was taken at the meeting of the board yesterday, when various members representing the owners of property, referred to the serious results of the breaking of windows and other damage which was done to properties.
